Raoul Peret Will Succeed Leygues as French Premier

President of Chamber of Deputies, At Invitation of President Millerand, Has Accepted Task of Forming New Cabinet; Ministers Being Chosen.

Paris, Jan. 14.—Raoul Peret, President of the Chamber of Deputies, was to-day asked by President Millerand to form a Cabinet in succession to the one headed by Georges Leygues which resigned on Wednesday.

M. Peret accepted the task and immediately began consultations with friends over the formation of a Ministry. He was expected to return to the Presidential residence by six o'clock this evening to report on the outcome of his efforts.

Strike in Paris

Paris, Jan. 14.—The postal, telegraph and telephone employees struck to-day and 3,000 police were sent out to preserve order during street demonstrations incidental to the reconvening of Parliament. It is feared the strike will spread throughout the communications services, including the railroad.

BALLOONISTS ARE WELCOMED HOME

Accept Invitation of Canadian Club at New York

New York, Jan. 14.—Lieuts. Kloor, Farrell and Hinton, naval balloonists, arrived to-day exactly one month after they had landed near Moose Factory, Ont., after a day's balloon flight from the Rockaway naval station.

Lieut. Farrell was the first to leave the train, accompanied by Mrs. Farrell, who had left New York to meet her husband. A crowd of relatives, naval officers and a group of business men from Rockaway greeted the party.

Guests of Club

New York, Jan. 14.—(Canadian Press).—The three United States balloonists, Lieuts. Kloor, Hinton and Farrell, who returned from Canada this morning, have accepted an invitation from the Canadian Club here to attend a dinner at the Hotel on January 21, when Hon. N. W. Rowell, K.C., and E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway will be the principal speakers.

It was also announced by the Canadian Club that Henry W. Taft, of New York, and Robert Rustonjee, formerly editor of the Oriental Review of Bombay, India, will speak. Mr. Taft will deal with the Japanese question, while Mr. Rustonjee's subject is announced as "The New Era in India."

Claimed Liquor Is Smuggled Into States by Aeroplane School

San Francisco, Jan. 14.—Aeroplane delivery of liquor from Canada and its distribution through a comprehensive organization operating under the cloak of an ostensible aeroplane school, was reported yesterday by D. C. Smith, prohibition officer from Portland, Ore., who is operating with John L. Considine, prohibition supervisor, in an investigation of the alleged association.

According to information which the officers said they had obtained, the association has an initiation fee of $300, has 250 members in Portland alone, has several companies and an aeroplane school operated as a cloak for its real business. Several aeroplanes flying between the Canadian border and coast states and a protective system, whereby its members by assessment furnish funds for legal aid for arrested operatives.

Strong Party Fight in South African Election

Toronto, Jan. 14.—(Canadian Press).—This is nomination day throughout the British Union of South Africa and the expectation is that there will be officially named in almost every constituency candidates of each of the three principal parties—South African Unionist, Nationalist and Labor. Three-cornered contests, it is thought, will be a general thing.

The South African Unionist coalition is the party of the present Government led by General Smuts.

Principal Issue

The principal issue in the campaign is that of secession from the British Empire, which the Nationalists strongly support. The latest manifesto of the leaders of that party affirm their demand for republicanism, notwithstanding the publication recently of a "minute" prepared by Senator Marais of the Nationalist head committee, urging that "the head committee must decide to drop the republic for the time being and contest the election on the

BRITISH NATIONAL DEBT

London, Jan. 14.—A "White Paper" just issued gives the total British National debt to the 1st of April of last year as £7,831,744,300. This represents an increase of nearly £297,000,000 over the year ended over the previous year.

ORGANIZING MEDICAL RELIEF FOR IRELAND

Sinn Fein Announces Offer From United States

Dublin, Jan. 14.—The Sinn Fein announced last night the receipt of the following cable from the United States by Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein:

"American nurses are forming a unit to give medical aid in Ireland or organized relief here. Wire instructions."

Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish Republic," replied that money was needed for relief and he suggested that "an American branch of the Irish White Cross come here to superintend the distribution."

Reprisals

Dublin, Jan. 14.—The Sinn Fein bulletin asserts that from December 18 to January 12 Crown forces have committed thirty-seven murders, forty-two attempted murders and wounding, burned seventy-eight houses and shops and not a single case has been punished, despite the proclamation of General Macready, the military commander in Ireland, that guilty persons would be liable to court-martial and the death penalty.

Bombs Thrown

Dublin, Jan. 14.—Two bombs were thrown at a lorry containing auxiliary police while it was traveling in Merin Square, a fashionable quarter of the city last night. The driver sped up the lorry while the cadets fired in the direction of the attacking party. There were no casualties.

Sixty Sentenced

Limerick, Jan. 14.—Sixty prisoners on trial in connection with an attack December 27 on Crown forces who were approaching a place where a dance was being held near Bruff, County Limerick, were sentenced yesterday by a field general court-martial to ten years penal servitude. Five years in each case, however, has been remitted.

King's Counsel Wounded

London, Jan. 14.—William McGrath, King's Counsel in Dublin, was severely wounded when fired upon by a man who forced an entrance into his home early this morning, says a Central News telegram from Dublin. McGrath is said to have been struck by several bullets.

Officers of the Dublin Union were raided by eight members of the Crown forces last night and books and documents were seized.

RESULT IN DOUBT AT WEST PETERBORO

All Candidates Expected to Poll Big Vote

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—(Canadian Press).—Interest is steadily growing at the capital in the West Peterboro by-election, in which at least five candidates in the field, there can be no certainty as to the successful candidate until the vote has been taken. A politician who returned from Peterboro this morning stated that the result was all the more in doubt because of the certainty that all five candidates would poll a big vote. From the standpoint of the Conservative Government, the candidate is believed to be in the best position, but with so many diverse elements participating in the fight, it is stated that organization may not predict so much as it does in a two-party contest.

Lively Fight

The five candidates involved in the by-election are now engaged in one of the liveliest political battles ever staged in this constituency. With the exception of J. C. Campbell, the U.F.O. nominee, and Thomas J. McMurray, Labor candidate, all have opened up committee headquarters and a small army of workers are striving to clean up the voters' lists before they are closed. While the actual registration was concluded last Saturday, there still remains through the medium of the court judge, one more chance of getting on the lists.

H. H. Burnham, ex-M.P., has filed nomination papers and made his deposit. "I am now ready for the polling," he declared.

C. H. Gordon, Liberal candidate, completed his organization last evening and promised to set a lively pace. Woman organizers have been enlisted to look after the women's vote and special quarters opened for their convenience.

The R. Denne (Government) interests have been at work for over two weeks and have started their canvass of the city with a large force of workers, including a number from outside, and are conducting an intensive campaign with the tariff as the main issue. It will be another week before there is much stirring in the Labor and U.F.O. candidates' campaign.

SINN FEIN EMISSARY BARRED BY AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, Jan. 14.—Osmund Gratton Esmond, regarded as a "Sinn Fein emissary," refused yesterday to take the oath of allegiance and was in consequence again refused permission to land in Australia.

Re-Elected Mayor for Third Term: Robert J. Porter

Mayor Porter Accorded Big Majority at Polls

Robert J. Porter was re-elected Mayor of Victoria yesterday for a third consecutive term by a majority of 913 votes over his opponent, Alderman Joseph Patrick. The Mayor received 2,517 votes as against 1,604 cast for Alderman Patrick, and 256 ballots were spoiled.

The majority accorded the Mayor is one of the largest on record here and is 300 greater than the majority by which Mr. Porter beat Alderman A. E. Todd two years ago.

The result of the Mayoralty election was never in doubt last night from the moment when counting of the ballots commenced.

The Mayor took the lead and held it throughout and the size of the majority became the only question. Shortly before eight o'clock Lester Patrick, Alderman Patrick's campaign manager, admitted to newspaper representatives that his father's defeat was apparent.

Neither candidate witnessed the counting, both having retired to their homes before the polls closed. Mayor Porter appeared in time to hear that he had been elected by a big majority, and a large throng pressed about him to voice its congratulations.

Predicts Progress.

His Worship sought refuge in his office at the City Hall in a short time, however, and composed the following statement, which he gave out to the Press:

"I am naturally elated by the result. I feel, however, that the substantial majority which the people of Victoria have honored me with is not a tribute only to myself but to the entire Council, which worked faithfully with me all year for the advancement of the city's interests. (Concluded on page 15.)

WHISKY RUNNERS BUSY AT WINDSOR

Sensational Disclosures in the Liquor Traffic Expected

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 14.—Sensational disclosures implicating some of Windsor's best citizens, are expected in the course of a few days in connection with the liquor traffic. Whiskey, mostly of Scotch and other imported brands is being brought here from Montreal in carload lots and it is charged, through disclosure with railroad employees is being dumped off beside the tracks in secluded sections of the border where it is picked up by trucks and autos and brought here. Detectives have learned that ambitious whiskey runners have actually brought several carloads to the border by chartering private parlor cars.

SIR WM. GAGE DEAD.

Toronto, Jan. 14.—Sir William Gage, well-known philanthropist, died here to-day at 1 o'clock.

Bedouins and Druses Wage Warfare in Syria

London, Jan. 14.—Severe fighting between Bedouins and Druses in Syria is reported in a Cairo dispatch to the Central News. The Druses are said to have lost 1,500 killed, but it is asserted the remnants of their forces are preparing for a counter offensive.

The Bedouins are one of the nomadic tribes inhabiting Syria, Arabia and Northern Africa. The Druses inhabit the ranges of Lebanon and have for 800 years maintained their independence. The race is warlike and for the most part adhere to a peculiar religious belief which combines the doctrines of the Old Testament, the Christian Gospel, the Koran and other faiths of the East.

EVEN "P.R." FATHER SPOILED BALLOT

Every Imaginable Way of Killing Votes Demonstrated

Must Await Count of Choices to Judge Results of System

Proportional representation apparently had few friends at polling headquarters when the work of counting ballots started last night. The trouble of changing their ballot-marking habits came early for some people. William Marchant, known as the father of proportional representation in Victoria, who through the newspapers and at meetings has been advising the public how to use figures and crosses on their ballots, observed the day that he has been waiting for twenty-four years by going into the booth and forthwith spoiling his ballot.

"I don't mind telling the joke on myself," said Mr. Marchant. "I've had the habit of marking crosses for so long that when I opened my ballot I instinctively started to use the old marks. There must have been lots of persons who were caught off guard the way I was. But with a little more experience, it will be as natural to mark ballots with figures as it has been with crosses."

After he spoiled his ballot, Mr. Marchant took it back to the clerk and got another.

The next man to come up and spoil his ballot was Mayor Porter. The instant I marked a cross on my ballot I realized that I had made a mistake," the Mayor explained. "It is hard to overcome old habits."

With only two candidates to vote on in the Mayoralty race, nearly seven per cent. of the ballots were spoiled. What the proportion of spoiled ballots in the aldermanic booths will be, where there is a greater opportunity to make mistakes, is not known yet.

Ballot Slaughter Too Great

In the School Trustee booths some persons indicated their three first choices by marking 7, 8 and 9 on their ballot, instead of 1, 2 and 3. The reason for this style of marking was not discovered last night, but it is supposed to be a result of some of the theories that were developed in the private discussion clubs that have been raging all over the city during the last few days on proportional representation. (Concluded on page 4.)

ANOTHER EGYPTIAN PLOT UNCOVERED

Conspiracy Similar to That of "Avengers Society"

London, Jan. 14.—Authorities in Egypt are reported to have discovered another conspiracy similar to that of the "Avengers Society," an alleged anti-British organization, uncovered last Fall, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Cairo, dated Wednesday. The details, adds the dispatch, have not yet been made public.

The plotting organization discovered last Autumn was alleged to have been a society organized to carry out assassinations on political personages, including the Sultan and his Ministers, and was commonly known as the "25 members of the organizations."

Twenty-five members of the organizations were convicted of conspiracy by a court which had been trying them for several weeks. Numerous assassinations and attempted murders were credited to this society.

DOUGHTY ARRAIGNED IN CRIMINAL COURT

Toronto, Jan. 14.—John Doughty was formally arraigned before Judge Coatsworth in the county criminal court here yesterday afternoon on charges of stealing $105,000 of Victory Bonds, the property of Ambrose J. Small, the missing theatre owner of this city, and conspiring to kidnap Small, and pleaded not guilty to each charge. The trial of Doughty was postponed three weeks at the request of Doughty's counsel, I. F. Hellmuth, K.C.

SIR WM. GAGE DEAD.

Governor Paid Visit

Quebec, Jan. 14.—(Canadian Press).—The respects of the people of Quebec Province were voiced yesterday by Premier Taschereau and Arthur Sauve, leader of the Opposition, on the occasion of the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire to the Quebec Legislative Assembly.

His Excellency in reply and after a gracious tribute to former Premier Gouin, recommended strongly to the attention of the Assembly a book entitled "The League of Nations Starts." The recommendation he made with two purposes, first for the nature of the problem itself, and second, the means of dealing with it. He cited passages at length from this work and urged that it was the duty of Canada to do all in her power to make good her part in the League as one of the great sister nations of the British Empire.

Only Five So Far Assured Election in Poll Yesterday

Todd, Sangster, Dewar and Aitken Elected Aldermen; Jay Gets Big School Board Majority; Joseph North Leads Commission Poll.

Doubt still surrounds yesterday's City Council, School Board and Police Commission elections, though counting of ballots, under the proportional representation plan, is proceeding rapidly at the City Hall to-day. So far only Alderman A. E. Todd, Alderman George Sangster, Alderman Robert Dewar and A. M. Aitken are assured of election to the City Council. George Jay has been elected to the School Board with an overwhelming majority; and the fate of other School Board candidates and of candidates for the Police Commission remains quite undecided, though Joseph North leads on the first count for the Commission.

After completing the counting of ballots in the Mayoralty election, Returning Officer William Scott announced this morning that he would proceed to count the aldermanic votes during the remainder of the day. Final results in the aldermanic election, he stated, would not be known until to-night, and it would be to-morrow night at least, he said, before ballots in the School Board and Police Commission could be counted.

The preliminary count last night showed that Alderman Todd had headed the polls with a total of 746 "first choices"—nearly four hundred more than he required to secure the quota which is necessary to elect a candidate. Alderman Sangster came second with 439 first choice votes, Alderman Dewar third with 403, and Mr. Aitken fourth with 374. Apparently all four received more than the required quota, so that their election is assured. Until the total number of ballots cast is ascertained, however, it is impossible to fix the exact size of the quota, but it will be in the neighborhood of 360 votes.

Alderman Sangster, who came third with 216 votes is practically assured of re-election, as it is felt that he will secure a large number of the second choices. Alderman Sangster and Alderman Todd, in fact, the whole of the present Council, with the exception of Alderman Fullerton and Alderman Dinsdale may sit again with John Harvey, and E. S. Woodward filling up two vacant seats, and Mr. Aitken the third. It is possible, however, that either Alderman Dinsdale or Alderman Fullerton may be ousted either by Christian Sivertz or John Day.

Mr. Woodward stated to-day that either he or Mr. Sivertz certainly would be elected. All persons voting for Alderman Dewar, he claimed, would vote for him in the other candidates. He was confident that either he or Mr. Sivertz would secure a seat. "Perhaps both of us may be elected," he said. "We believe that a large number of Mr. Todd's second choices will go to Labor and that if occurs both of us will be elected."

The fate of the tail-enders, of course, will be decided by the manner in which the majorities secured by Alderman Todd, Sangster and Dewar are distributed. While Labor is confident of securing many of the Todd second choices, it is felt that a large part of Alderman Sangster's will go to Alderman Andros, who has been supporting Alderman Sangster in the election.

Alderman Dinsdale to-day admitted the possibility of defeat. As he came third in the poll last year and has been heavily beaten by the other candidates, his drop came as a surprise to him. He attributed this change to his positive stand against civic swimming baths, which, he claims would be unprofitable. "It is not the voters, but the new system of voting that I blame," he said.

It is considered quite probable that Alderman Dinsdale will slide into a place among the first ten, aided by second choices on Alderman Sangster's ballots. Alderman Dinsdale is well-known as an ardent supporter of Alderman Sangster.

The first count has practically eliminated Walter Walker, a former alderman; J. A. Shanks, J. I. Seabrook, Mrs. Emma Hood and W. G. Winterburn.

McLachlin Is Again Elected President of Canadian Lumbermen

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Dan McLachlin, of Annapolis, was re-elected yesterday president of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association.

A. E. Clark, Toronto, and Angus McLean, Bathurst, N.B., were elected as Vice-presidents, E. C. Knight, of Vancouver, was elected as the representative from Western Canada, on the board of directors.

At the afternoon's meeting of the convention, a resolution was passed opposing the proposed increase of maximum workmen's compensation for injuries to 100 per cent. It also opposed any move to introduce old age pensions or unemployment insurance at the present time.

Other resolutions adopted asked for the abolition of the business profits tax; urged opposition to any legislation shortening the hours of labor in view of the necessity for greater production, and opposed legislation restricting the use of wooden shingles.

Next year's convention will be held in Toronto.

Famine in India Causes Some Concern in Britain

London, Jan. 14.—Official announcement that famine exists in several districts of India, made yesterday at the India Office, has occasioned concern in England. The presence of scarcity of food in Great Britain's mighty dependency in the East comes at an inopportune time for the Government, which is already grappling with serious unrest among the natives and it is realized here that no other thing could cause greater disquietude in India than a shortage of grain.

Mere mention of famine in India is freighted with terror for the natives of that country, who look back to times when scores of thousands of their fellow people died that crops in Punjab, in the extreme northwestern part of the Indian Peninsula, are poor. The greatest irrigation works in all India are situated in this province, the population of which is more than 25,000,000. Several other districts mentioned are heavily populated, notably Hyderabad, with more than 11,000,000.

Even local famines would cause intense suffering and if the whole country should be affected the results might be terrible, especially in the thickly populated cities.

PREMIER OF GREECE

HATES VENIZELOS

Rhallis Regards Him as Political Adventurer

Athens, Jan. 14.—Demetrios Rhallis, the new Greek Premier who succeeded Venizelos when the latter was defeated in the elections last Autumn, hates the sight of Venizelos and has by no means always been an admirer of Constantine, who now has been recalled as King.

Rhallis regards Venizelos as a political adventurer. This in part may be due to the fact that when Venizelos came from Crete to Athens and gained the political ascendancy, Rhallis' reputation as a politician was somewhat damaged. In his long political career, the new Premier has generally been at loggerheads with the Crown. He often has disputes with the late King George and it was not until Constantine was dethroned by the Entente powers that Rhallis really regarded him seriously. This action of the Entente, however, converted Rhallis to become a supporter of Constantine's cause and, since 1916, he has been devoted to that ruler.

Rhallis is one of the most interesting characters in Greece. He is a polished statesman and is often referred to as a "dear old man." (He is about 80).

His favorite pets are goats and fowls, which he owns in great numbers, and feeds with his own hands. When not in public office, he practices his profession of the law. In his younger days he spent a considerable fortune in politics.

SINN FEIN ARMY

TOTALS 200,000 MEN

Montreal, Jan. 14.—A Montreal Star cable from Dublin says:

"The Sinn Fein organization has 200,000 men under arms in Ireland. It is stated authoritatively.

"This republican army represents five per cent of the Irish population.

"The army has military discipline, and is organized to zone groups, with commanders of each, all under order from a central headquarters, is partially uniformed and has a number of secret arsenals and armories.

"The Sinn Fein army of 200,000 comprises men ranging in age from 18 to 30.

"They pursue ordinary farm and city life, except that they are subject to call for ambush duty or secret service and weekly military lectures or drill."

WIDER LEGISLATION

TO PUNISH CRIME

New York State Plans More Drastic Measures

New York, Jan. 14.—Legislators in this State served notice during New York's crime wave that at the next session they intend introducing measures to provide greater punishment for highwaymen and burglars.

With daring robberies becoming every day, the courts here quickly decided to mete out maximum punishment wherever possible and raised bail to insure keeping criminals behind bars.

In study of the laws in various States shows that in three, burglary is punishable by death, and in four, robbery—should the maximum punishment be applied.

First degree burglary may be punished by death in North Carolina and Virginia by means of electricity, and in Delaware by hanging. Alabama and Virginia's laws provide the maximum of death in robbery cases, while Nevada specifies death for train robbers, and Texas for robbery accomplished by means of deadly weapons.

Several States provide for life imprisonment, or for "any term up to life" in burglary cases. The life penalty thus is possible in Massachusetts, Florida, Iowa, Ohio, Rhode Island and South Carolina, while in Maine the law merely provides "any term of years," making it possible to impose a sentence which virtually means life. New York, Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota accomplish the same end by stipulating that burglary shall be punished by "not less than ten years."

Other States vary from maximum punishments of 40 years in Utah and 30 years in New Hampshire, to only seven years in Indiana, which provides "not over 10 years."

Robbery may be punished by life imprisonment in Idaho, Rhode Island, Texas, Oregon, Utah, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan and Hawaii. California provides for not less than one year.

The least severe penalty is that of Connecticut, which stipulates "not more than seven years." In most states the maximum varies from 15 to 20 years.

In view of present conditions, however, bills are being prepared for introduction in several States to increase the maximum penalty to death or life imprisonment.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS HIT

BY DUBLIN CURFEW

Dublin, Jan. 14.—The 10 o'clock curfew, lately put into effect, hit Dublin a hard blow. The city had accommodated itself easily to a mid-night closing hour previously in force, but the 10 o'clock embargo on all activity meant the complete abandonment of all social functions in the evening. The result has been to kill all the trade serving such events.

The great stores are almost idle, and the managers of some of the most popular of them say that they are operating at a loss. There is no demand for new dresses.

The theatres are suffering most. At one house the first night after curfew there were only eleven people in the auditorium. The moving picture houses are doing better, but they all have to close at nine to enable their patrons to get home before the curfew hour. The music halls which used to open to two houses a night have only one.

They were always full for each performance this means cutting off half their income.

The tramway company's cars are now nearly empty in the evenings. They lately raised the fares by parliamentary authority to enable them to meet increased expenses, but the drop due to the curfew has more than wiped out the additional receipts.

The regulation is declared to be imposed in the interest of the public to induce them to avoid the risks of being abroad after dark. In present conditions, even if there were no curfew, many people would be too timid to leave home in the evenings.

Still there is much criticism of the imposition of a curfew at 10 o'clock at night, provoked by assassinations which took place at nine o'clock in the morning.

DUNCAN COUNCIL

Duncan, Jan. 14.—The municipal elections yesterday resulted in the old members of the Council being re-elected, the following being the result of the poll: H. W. Dickie, 140; H. P. Prevost, 119; T. Smith, 118, and R. Whidden, 116, all elected. R. Whittington, 81, not elected. Mayor Pitt and the School Trustees and Police Commissioners were returned by acclamation.

Heart Fluttering Easily Corrected

GOOD ADVICE TO FOLKS BOTHERED WITH PALPITATION, WEAKNESS, ETC.

If your heart flutters, be careful. An attack is liable to come on at any time. Excitement, over-exertion or emotion may cause it.

If blood rushes to the head, if palpitation and short breath are noticeable, there's cause for alarm.

If you want a good honest remedy try Ferrozone. We recommend Ferrozone because it's right. It's right for heart trouble. It cured A. P. Beattie, who lives at Allen Hotel, Bay City, Mich. See if your symptoms resemble these:

Some Symptoms of Weak Heart. Nervousness, Palpitation, Trembling, Dizziness, Sinking Feeling, Heart Pains, Short Breath, Weakness.

Mr. Beattie says: "I was weak and miserable. I was subject to heart palpitation and dizziness."

"As I grew worse I began to have trembling and sinking sensations."

"Ferrozone strengthened my heart, gave vigor to my nerves, soon made me well. It's a great builder."

Had Bad Cough For Three Years

The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.

The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.

There is no remedy that will relieve coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing and soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying the germs that produce serious lung complications.

Mrs. John Miller, Minburn, Alta., writes:—"I had a very bad cough for three years. I went to several doctors and tried different cough medicines, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after using several bottles I became completely cured. I always keep a bottle in the house, and also recommend it to others."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been universally used for over 30 years, and so great has been its success, it is only natural that a great many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper, 3 pinches the trade mark; price 35c. and 60c. a bottle; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LADYSMITH BOASTS

AN EXCELLENT BAND

Colliery Extension Musical Organization in Demand

Ladysmith, Jan. 14.—The Ladysmith Extension Colliery Band is making rapid progress under their new conductor, A. J. Merry. Full attendances at practices twice weekly is the rule, and the interest and enthusiasm shown by the members promises to place the band among the premier bands of the Province in the near future. The band numbers 24 efficient players, and in addition has a class of learners whose number (7) is only limited by the shortage of instruments.

The band is generously supported by the citizens, and they intend to show their appreciation of that support by a series of promenade concerts and dances in the open air during the coming season.

On Christmas Day they gave a short programme of Christmas music at the hospital and in various parts of the city, their efforts to please were thoroughly appreciated by the citizens.

Christmas Day was a day of pleasant surprises. On assembling at the Band Hall, the secretary, Alex Wright, on behalf of the band, asked the bandmaster, Mr. Merry to accept a handsome brief pipe, together with a brush and comb in case for Mrs. Merry as a token of the band's appreciation of his services and embodying their best wishes for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. In reply Mr. Merry thanked them for the nice presents, which would be more highly appreciated for the kind feelings associated with them. He congratulated the band on the interest taken in music and with the cordial relations and harmony existing between them, felt sure they would soon occupy a front rank place among the bands of the Province.

T. A. Spruston, the genial mine superintendent, announced his intention of presenting a flute to the band, and later in the day, while playing a programme near the residence of Dr. Montgomery, that gentleman instructed the band master to select "Bb clarinet as a present from him to the band. Thus with the gradual introduction of more wood-wind and reeds the band bids fair to soon become a well-balanced military band.

Recently the band held the first of a series of sacred concerts at the Rialto Theatre. They were assisted by the Methodist Choir and such well-known local artists as Messrs. James Mason and Searle, the Misses

CRERAR ENDORSED AS FARMER LEADER

Brandon, Man., Jan. 14.—The leadership in Federal politics of Hon. Thomas A. Crerar was formally accepted by Manitoba farmers following his address to the annual convention of the United Farmers here last night.

A resolution was passed endorsing his choice by the Canadian Council of Agriculture to lead the new National Party.

Mr. Crerar, in his address, attacked the Government Railway policy and termed the acquisition of the National Railways as a striking example of the result of public apathy in politics. He predicted that a movement would be begun soon for the return of the railways to private ownership.

He began his address by referring to the aims of the Great War Veterans' Association, which, he said, had been largely misunderstood throughout Canada. "No citizens," he said, "are more genuinely working for the welfare of the Dominion than the officials of this association."

He made a plea for the delegates' support and sympathy to their cause. He spoke of the opportunities and duties before the farmer organizations and said that throughout Canada the impression prevailed that they are a dangerous group, out for their own advancement. This impression, the speaker said, has originated since their entrance into politics.

J. L. Brown was re-elected as president of the United Farmers of Manitoba.

DEBATERS CLASHED AT KEATING HALL ON WATER SCHEME

Opponents of Saanich Bylaw Figure; Reeve Alleges Misrepresentation

Every seat in the Keating Temperance Hall was occupied when Chairman H. E. Tanner called the special meeting to order last night. Mr. Tanner said the meeting would be closely held to the subject of the waterworks extension by-law. He asked for a fair hearing to all the speakers, as the subject was a controversial one "and we want to get the rights of the matter."

A. E. Hall, Jr., was the first speaker, saying Mr. Hall, Sr., as candidate for Reeve, opposed the by-law as unfair to the rest of the municipality. Mr. Tanner said the meeting would be an effort to "put one over" on behalf of a section of Saanich.

He claimed the official figures showed the water extension could not pay, the Gordon Head people admitted it could not pay as at present proposed, and the rest of Saanich would have to pay what Gordon Head claimed it needed. "If the Gordon Head people are willing to pay for the extension, let them put before the people a by-law providing clearly they shall pay the whole cost," he said.

Would Defer Scheme.
He dealt with Reeve Watson's statement as to the need of laterals to make a trunk main pay, claiming that, because Gordon Head is admittedly not subdivided as was the present area when first laid before the people, it would be impossible for the Gordon Head residents to pay for the system for years to come. The proposed eight cents per foot was only camouflage for a four-cent rate, that the existing system had never been any burden on the Saanich residents, and that the proposed system would be such a burden were all points elaborated.

"Can you therefore believe that this scheme is going to be fair to the rest of Saanich?" he asked, declaring that until Gordon Head is prepared by subdivision to install a system of laterals it had no right to appeal for aid in putting in a trunk main. He claimed that the provision for extensions to the present system contained in the by-law, would not be necessary, as those benefited by the water service would rather continue to pay the present rate and have monthly water bills than pay high interest for money borrowed at the peak of money prices, and so would provide an ample yearly fund for extensions.

"We don't ask you to defeat the by-law, we ask you to secure the facts, if you favor the by-law, vote for it," he said, and challenged Reeve Watson to debate the question at the Town School meeting, receiving applause as he closed his address.

A. Johns asked if much tax arrears were not in existence in the present water area, and if so how did the system show a probable profit?

The speaker replied there were no arrears in the water area proportionately to the rest of Saanich, but that on Shelbourne Street a large amount of arrears existed. He said the service and much of the frontage passed was now the property of Saanich through tax sales and would pay no frontage tax on the eight-cent or any other basis.

Ex-Councillor Somers.
"In Saanich there is no water area," said ex-councillor Somers, explaining the municipality has power to extend the system from time to time as needed.

He admitted that the Gordon Head extension would not, and could not, of itself pay in its early years, but taking the system as a whole would show a profit.

R. E. Collis asked whether Mr. Somers was prepared to pay an eight cent frontage rate, and was informed no rate had been mentioned in the by-law, and that the Council had power to set any rate found necessary.

Would Pay Cheerfully.
Asked as to whether Gordon Head would not consider an eight cent, straight rate for frontage tax he replied, "Gordon Head has received no promises."

"At a meeting in Gordon Head last Spring I moved a motion unanimously passed to accept an eight cent rate the first year and take our chance in future years. We would have no recourse should the Council even place the rate higher."

"Personally, I think the Council should set a rate high enough to pay the expenses each year."

Mr. Collis doubted this, and members of a Gordon Head delegation supported Mr. Somers, saying "Gordon Head would pay what was required."

Mr. Somers said he would welcome questions, not being a platform speaker, but none forthcoming, retired with applause.

Explains Why in Opposition.
R. E. Collis said he wished to make plain he was not anxious to appear as endeavoring to defeat anything for the good of Saanich, which is properly explained and understood by the electors.

It was in an effort to understand an improperly presented matter that he first delved into the by-law. He had no intention of keeping from Gordon Head residents a service they had asked for, and offered to pay for on such generous terms. He did object when he found that service presented in such a by-law accompanied by such a document of estimates.

He had been told, "Mr. Collis, it will not be good for you to oppose this by-law." What I am doing is for municipal righteousness. There are some things we learn at our mother's knee, and righteousness exalteth a nation," he said.

When the proposal to extend the system was made, Mr. Collis, in terms as offered he began to look into it, his present position being the result.

Taking up Reeve Watson's statement in the by-law that subdivision made it possible to get the present system, Mr. Collis agreed, and also endorsed the statement that laterals were the paying feature of a water system, but doubted if Gordon Head would have such a system of supply services in many years to come.

He then utilized a black board to make the demonstrations already exhibited in the hall more plain, claiming that with the present frontage tax on the existing system sufficient revenue will accrue to pay for needed extensions without any bond issued. He claimed that the funds so available are what is being relied upon to finance the system as a whole, penalizing the present area for the benefit of Gordon Head.

G. A. Vantreigh, president of the Mr. Collis was endeavoring to establish a claim, on behalf of Wards Two and Seven, to ownership of a system which is the property of all Saanich.

Mr. Collis denied this, saying his aim was to show that the present area needed no loans for extensions if its profits are properly used.

Mr. Vantreigh said Saanich as a whole financed the present service and Saanich as a whole was entitled to extension of service.

Mr. Collis replied that the present area had paid for itself and he was anxious to see the Gordon Head extension placed on a similar basis and not a burden to the present area, asserting that the present system will contribute respectively $15,663, $16,685 and $17,022 in 1922, 1923 and 1924, to the expense of the system, otherwise available for extensions and laterals in the existing water area.

Mr. Vantreigh then said the inner wards had benefited in schools service at the expense of Saanich, and should not oppose the expenditure of money for a few years until the extension got off a paying basis.

Mr. Collis, in turn, stated such an argument was a case of Gordon Head "trying to get a bit of its own back."

E. Holloway elicited a reply that there were no natural resources in the existing area, and then said the extension to Gordon Head and Cedar Hill would serve the most fertile area in the Province, which would amply repay water service.

Mr. Collis said the blackboard profits would all be jeopardized if Victoria re-established the dollar basic rate, and then it would be obvious "that we will have to wait out more cash to pay for the Gordon Head extension."

Mr. Collis commenced to show that over 66 per cent of the water area frontage is subdivisions and pays a straight five-cent rate, and being interrupted by Mr. Vantreigh, replied that the Gordon Head area was acreage, claimed that the official estimates "do not dare" to publish. These were based on 4,000 feet of service with ten properties, only one with a domestic service. Being challenged as to his figures on density of population he said they were those of Reeve Watson, who, having just arrived, denied his accuracy and charged Mr. Collis with deliberate and repeated misstatement, after being previously corrected. Captain Campbell also said he had frequently corrected Mr. Collis.

The speaker said that 4,000 feet of frontage would produce, under his estimates, $256 in Gordon Head, while the subdivided present water area produced $832 in the first year of installation. How can such a revenue as is proposed protect the scheme when the present area, in times of lower costs, was protected by nearly three times the revenue?

Reeve Watson's Views.
"Mr. Collis has made the statement the Council has not made plain how the extension is to be paid for. I am going to disprove that and some others," said Reeve Watson.

He pointed out that there is no water area in Saanich, the whole municipality, and past experience was the basis on which he gave official figures to show the revenue accruing will yearly be in excess of the required expenditures by several thousand dollars.

Countering the assertion that 85 per cent was acreage, Reeve Watson showed by municipal records that water areas are served are already subdivided and will pay the full frontage rate.

"Mr. Collis is talking on misinformation; has he ever been in the district and noted the residents there?" he said, and charged the previous speaker with only taking small portions of the official estimates and drawing therefrom false conclusions.

"Those knocking this scheme should at least adhere a little closer to the truth," said the Reeve, and criticized ex-councillor Adams for misstatements in a letter to the press, going on to explain the history of the private bill under which the waterworks have been constructed, on the lines explained by the Reeve in his published reply to Mr. Adams.

"So you see there is no such thing as a water area in Saanich," was his summary, after reading extracts from the Special Act.

"I think I have shown you that the installation of the extension is going to put no additional expense on the beneficiaries of the present system, and add nothing to the municipal taxes," he said in closing.

Claims Figures Err.

FRAGILE, PALE AND MISERABLE

The Melancholy State of Thousands of Bloodless Children and Young Girls.

How often do you hear the remark, "She is very delicate?" Now often it means that some young woman is living in misery, suffering from periods of prostration, dizziness, loss of appetite and disordered digestion. Head aches afflict her at intervals; pain in the back and limbs follow any exertion. She is never really well.

This fragile state of health, this lack of vitality, calls for prompt treatment. The blood must be nourished and made strong enough to vitalize the system that is so lacking in energy. In such cases Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved remarkably successful in making the new, rich, red blood necessary in restoring tone to the system. Mrs. L. M. Duncan, South Mountain, Ont., tells of the wonderful benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills made in the case of her young daughter. She says:

"It is only right that I should let you know of the good derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by my girl of eleven years. She was always very thin and not gaining in weight. Her appetite was poor and she had no desire for wholesome food. Finally we decided to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking one box, she went away on a three weeks' vacation, taking three boxes of pills with her, which she took regularly while she was away. When she returned home we were surprised and delighted to see how well she looked, and to find that she had gained seven pounds in weight. She had a much better color and her appetite had improved so that she was always ready for her meals. She continued using the pills until she had taken seven boxes, and the great improvement they made in her condition was noticed by many around here. I can only add that I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a splendid medicine."

The best time to begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the moment you feel the least bit out of sorts. The sooner you do so the sooner you will regain your old time energy. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A. Vantreigh challenged Mr. Collis' blackboard demonstration of a hypothetical 4,000 feet street.

"If this is Tyndall Avenue, you have figured on one house in 4,000 feet, whereas there are 23 residences and a school. Would you deny those school children water?" he asked, claiming the agitation against the by-law was work of three men who, by intimidating Gordon Head was trying "to put across a crooked deal" were seeking to influence a majority of voters to vote against the extension.

He claimed that Ward Three had cheerfully paid for expensive roads and schools in other wards but was being opposed when asking for a public service.

Wards Two and Seven appear to think they own the waterworks. I want to tell you it is a municipal concern, why should it not be extended to Gordon Head if it is not going to add anything to the costs," he said, asserting that an enlargement of the water area had been proven by Reeve Watson to be a paying proposition.

We need the water, we are entitled to it, and I cannot see why the service should be confined to one corner of Saanich, when it is owned by the whole," he said.

Mr. Collis summed up by saying he only wanted an assurance that the extension would pay, and returning his chalk made more figures which he maintained his challenged estimates checked up with the official figures.

Asking whether his figuring was understood, the only reply received was that the negative and he closed with the comment, "The figures are, to say the least, very suspicious." The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to Chairman Tanner.

FRANCE WANTS U. S. TROOPS ON RHINE

Paris, Jan. 14.—The reduction of the United States forces on the Rhine from 15,000 to 8,000 has caused considerable comment in French official circles. The decision of the United States Government is regarded as a logical development of what French officials regard as the plan of the United States to decrease its participation in European affairs to the very minimum.

The withdrawal of all the United States troops in Germany would be looked upon by the French as very unfavorable. It is pointed out that the presence of a few thousand of them on the Rhine has had and is continuing to have a great moral effect on Germany.

THE FIRST TEST.

The family of reform measures which, although beautiful in theory and flawless on paper, have proved tragic failures when subjected to practical test, has become very numerous and is growing rapidly every year. It would be unfair at this stage to include proportional representation as demonstrated in Victoria yesterday among them, not only because it was the first occasion on which the new system has been tried here, but because the counting not having been completed, it is impossible to contrast its merits with its defects. But of one thing we may be sure, and that is that unless the public is convinced that subsequent applications of the system will be free from the hopeless confusion and complication which marked yesterday's experience, it will consign proportional representation, notwithstanding its advantages, to the limbo of things not wanted. That is what Nelson and New Westminster did after their first experiences. It may not be altogether complimentary to the electorate to say that it prefers convenience and ease in voting, above all else, and that not only in Victoria but everywhere else where representative government exists very little discouragement is needed to keep a large proportion of it from the polls, but it is a substantial fact. The average electorate is still a long way from perfection. Hence, it should not be rushed too hastily along the highway that leads to the Millennium.

THE ELECTION.

One of the pleasant features of the mayoralty campaign was the absence of hard feelings and unkind words. Both aspirants for the honor indulged in good natured raillery; but in their platform utterances and their observations to the newspapers neither took refuge in the sort of campaign material which leaves an ugly mark on victor and loser alike.

The result naturally indicates that the majority of those who voted were perfectly satisfied with the manner in which His Worship Mayor Porter has discharged his duties during the two years in which he has occupied the position of First Magistrate. His victory over an equally popular opponent was a decisive one and we join in the congratulations to His Worship which already have been tendered to him by his opponents and friends alike. Mr. Patrick's concern for the well-being and progress of the community will not be diminished by yesterday's defeat.

It is an unfortunate circumstance, however, that out of an electoral roll of more than ten thousand voters considerably less than half the number discharged their annual duty. Apathy to this extent is deplorable and does not bespeak that interest in the affairs of the community which the city in general has a right to expect from its adult population. It affords a striking commentary upon the attitude invariably adopted towards the administration of municipal affairs when those elected by popular vote appear to fall below the standard measured by a critical electorate which itself failed in its duty.

The people alone are responsible for the government they get. This is one of the axioms of democratic rule. And if yesterday's election should provide any sort of unsatisfactory sequel in the management of the city's affairs the qualified voter should have no ground for complaint. In the meantime it is the duty of every citizen to give his support to the new Council.

With the personnel of the aldermanic board uncertain at this stage it is possible only to speculate upon the position of preference to which those better known candidates may attain upon the completion of the count. The election as first choice of Aldermen Todd, Sangster, and Dewar, as well as a new-comer to the aldermanic field in the person of Captain Aitken, in the initial count entitles the quartette to congratulations.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Perhaps the most significant phase of the municipal contest was the vote polled by Magistrate Jay upon his re-entry into the realm of school administration. It must have afforded himself a considerable amount of satisfaction, while his return to the Board to whose duties he has given a great amount of time and study for many years promises to that highly important branch of civic government the benefits of his advice and judgment. The comparatively small margin which separates Mr. Jay's prospective colleagues on the first count lends a good deal of uncertainty to any attempt to name the remaining two successful candidates. Fortunately, however, the material from which the choice will be made is such as to guarantee a body fully alive to its responsibilities and capable of discharging the obligation it will be called upon to assume.

SAANICH AN EXAMPLE.

By its general progressiveness and particularly through its sound financial administration the Municipality of Saanich may well take unto itself the role of an example to many other larger and more fortunately circumstanced communities. It is largely on this account that there appears to be every justification for the electorate of Victoria's enterprising neighbor to renew its confidence in Reeve Watson and the two members of his Council who are contesting their seats by insuring their election to-morrow.

AUSTRIA ON THE VERGE.

Austria's plight is one of the most melancholy spectacles on the European horizon. It has become comparatively easy to feel sorry for what is left of that stolen mass of territory which once was ruled by the Hapsburgs. But the danger which will attend a collapse of the existing reminders of law and order may not retain its local significance very long. A nation hungry and without visible means of subsistence quickly falls a prey to sinister influences nowadays. If for no other reason there is work here for the League of Nations. Austria has been admitted to membership and the obligation involved should be reciprocal.

GOLF LINKS PROJECT.

In its decision to proceed with the construction of a brand new eighteen-hole golf links The United Service Club has commenced the performance of a signal service to the City of Victoria and the adjacent communities. At its meeting last night the members of the organization pledged their whole-hearted support to the enterprise, and if no unforeseen obstacles obtrude the publicity literature of the Victoria and Island Development Association should be able to announce this highly important recreational development early this year.

READING WELCOMED.

Even the Nationalist press in India welcomes the appointment of Lord Reading as Viceroy. In almost every direction his coming has been heralded as the forerunner of an era of peace and prosperity. Although qualified to some extent by the optimism of those newspapers which are loud in their denunciation of native intrigue, the selection of the Lord Chief Justice for such a highly important post at a stage in Indian evolution in which an unusual condition of unrest is manifest, appears to have appealed to native as well as Anglo-Indian sentiment and imagination. And if his period of office should see a practical solution to India's difficulties, and a fuller measure of self-government in which native aspiration may expand without danger of disturbing the imperial tie, the appointment will be blessed indeed.

NOTE AND COMMENT

As a general rule Victoria's municipal elections provide no surprises.

When the United Service Golf Club has operated its new links for five years our prediction is that the City will regret the by-law was defeated.

It is gratifying to know that if the comet which makes its appearance every 5,893 years should chance to smite the Earth ever so slightly next June there will be no necessity to postpone even one game of the Summer baseball series.

The United States will lend Greece $32,000,000 if the Hellenic Kingdom agrees to spend it all in America upon material other than that used for war. There should be little wrong with an investment of that sort; it is a "European entanglement" which should appeal to the average American.

Forty-three per cent. of Victoria's qualified municipal electorate went to the polls yesterday. For the next twelve months one hundred per cent. of the electorate and one hundred per cent. of the population beyond the school age will grumble about the way the city is governed. The elected administrators will be justified in telling fifty-seven per cent. of the voters to go for a walk.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS*A SUGGESTION.

(From The St. John Telegraph).
The hard times following the Franco-Prussian war made the French a nation of money-savers, and in the next forty years France became one of the wealthiest countries in the world. History is repeating itself, it is said, with respect to France, and there are signs that the British people are also practicing thrift and economy in some such way. A New York actress has submitted a novel suggestion regarding the habit of saving. She points out that if one will save a cent on the first day of January, two cents on the first day of February, four cents on the first of March, eight cents on the first of April, sixteen on the first of May, and continue to double the sum of the previous month on the first of the next one will find that more than forty dollars has been saved during the year. Here are the amounts as she has set them down:
January ..... .01
February ..... .02
March ..... .04
April ..... .08
May ..... .16
June ..... .32
July ..... .64
August ..... 1.28
September ..... 2.56
October ..... 5.12
November ..... 10.24
December ..... 20.48
Total ..... $40.96
The actress claims that the plan comes in the last two months of the year, but if one were to acquire this habit of saving during the first ten months it would be much easier enough to take care of the larger amounts in November and December. Altogether, the plan seems to be a good one. Some people would find it possible to make each amount many times larger than the modest sum suggested by the New York actress.

WHERE IT STARTED

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
Smoking was practised by the most primitive people, opium and hemp were the herbs most used. The invention of the pipe, while obscure as to time, comes from the frequent use of herbs burnt in containers as a sacrifice or for healing purposes. The person to be cured inhaled the smoke from a portable container with a tube for the smoke was a logical development of this practice.

WHY

DO WE SPEAK OF "DUNNING" A PERSON FOR MONEY?
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

During the early part of the last century there was in England a constable named John Dun, who was a past-master of his profession, an extremely successful collector of debts of all kinds. No job was too hard for him to tackle, no debtor too callous for Dun to prick his conscience or shame him into payment in one way or another. One of the constable's pet schemes was to call upon the debtor twice, and on each of these first two visits he would wear his ordinary clothes. Then at the third visit, when the debtor was sure that the constable was not coming, Dun would appear in a scarlet cloak or a pair of green tights, so as to make himself as conspicuous as possible. Thus attired, and ringing a bell in order to further proclaim the reason for his visit, he would return a third time, and it was seldom that the debtor withstood more than one of these public announcements of his debt.

Because Constable Dun was so successful in the collection of money due, he became common in such cases to say, "You'll have to send Dun for your money," or "You'll have to Dun him to get it," and the expression persisted long after the constable himself was dead and forgotten.

REEVE LOCKLEY REPLIES.

To the Editor:—In answer to several letters and news items that have appeared in the daily press I would like to say in the first place regarding one who signs himself "Perpetrated" that it is quite true that rate-payers can get all the reasonable information they require by application to the clerk at the Municipal Hall, but beg to remind him that the information asked for at last Monday night's meeting by J. Jardine was answered verbally, but not apparently to that gentleman's satisfaction. He wanted information that was not pertinent to his question at all, and the Council (rightly in my mind) decided to have the solicitor's advice, which already has been given to Mr. Jardine.

My opponent is now pretending to be quite angry because he cannot rent a hall so that he can hold a public meeting. Now, Mr. Jardine, several weeks ago that he intended to run for the office of Reeve I only knew of any opposition on Monday last. I then ordered the hall for one night and no more. Why did he not, as a business man would have done, make his plans accordingly. No, he was too late. Is it not a fair inference that this would be the manner in which he would conduct the business of the municipality if he were elected as Reeve? Surely we do not want a man of this description, but one who is alert and quick enough to get there first and to be able to conduct the business of the municipality in a thorough up-to-date and businesslike manner.

A. LOCKLEY, Reeve.

ANSWERS REEVE WATSON.

To the Editor:—Reeve Watson has characterized my letter as containing misstatements. I maintain every statement I made was true. The letter was written for the purpose of showing the start that was made, also the ideas and intentions of the Council in a waterworks measure. It was not a report on waterworks but an attack on the method of presenting a by-law for Council consideration. The Reeve has not defended, at least not to my mind.

Clause 2 of his letter states that the Council was inundated with troubles caused by the local improvement areas then in existence. This is the first I have heard of such terrible trouble. The larger areas surrounded the smaller areas and they were absorbed, as a matter of course. The Reeve also stated that the main to Gordon Head was simply deferred. Yes, deferred and entered in the same way that the main to Keatings is deferred, or to Saanich. I challenge him to produce any record from Rick to that effect. But the gem of these clauses in his letter states that the Council of 1915 had a bill passed to enable the assessment of the main to the main. "Proposed in the new by-law," Mr. Editor, this is rich. The Reeve stated my memory was poor, but I can assure him my eyesight is extremely good and I cannot find any "such manner of assessment" in the new by-law. It is advertised in The Times. Everybody look! This is one of the only times I wished to emphasize in my previous letter. The Reeve stated in his interview in The Times that a trunk main cannot be paid for on the frontage basis without expropriation. We agreed on that point. Then further on he states in effect, that in the sweet by and bye, when the cows come home, the rates will furnish revenue, all will be lovely and according to the invisible "manner of assessment" in the new by-law, "no body will have to pay." Mr. Editor, the Reeve and I are good friends. But I did not think he could produce such a lemon from a strawberry patch.

ONTARIO'S PREMIER SPEAKS AT OTTAWA

Mr. Drury's First Public Appearance at Capital

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The first public appearance of Hon. E. C. Drury, Premier of Ontario, in this city took place yesterday afternoon. The luncheon given by the Ottawa Valley Lumbermen's Association to the delegates to the Lumbermen's Convention, Mr. Drury was accorded a most cordial reception. His subject was: "What steps can we of the present generation take in order that the lumber industry shall be perpetual in Canada?"

Tribute To Americans.
Hon. Mr. Drury paid a tribute to the numerous Americans present. Every good Canadian, he said, and good Britisher was pleased to see the British and American flag flying, as they were here, side by side. The first duty of Canada as a part of the British Empire was to foster a good spirit between the nation to the south of us and the dear old Motherland. For a better understanding between the two countries was the one thing that would produce and keep a better relationship.

Pitchforked Into Politics.
"I was," said Mr. Drury, "before I was pitchforked into politics—a proper agricultural farmer—farmer, like lumbering, is one of the country's natural industries. There is one particular in which lumbering should be more like agriculture, for when a farmer harvests his crops he plants another and leaves the sun, rain and wind to produce him another. We in Canada, I am afraid, have forgotten in the past that trees grow. You—we and you—have got the trees out of your class. We have been classing trees and minerals as the same thing: as something to be got off the ground

They should not be picked out at random, as the tendency is to select lenses which are very much too powerful, and thus do harm to the delicate structure of the eye. A thorough and painstaking examination should be made and glasses fitted that bring back the vision that the years have taken away. as soon as possible and often by wasteful methods.

"The great work for us to-day is that we must make the lumbering industry a permanent one. We must provide for the future, so that there shall be a crop for all time."

"We have been wasteful in the past. In some places we destroyed not only the timber itself but even the soil on which it grew."

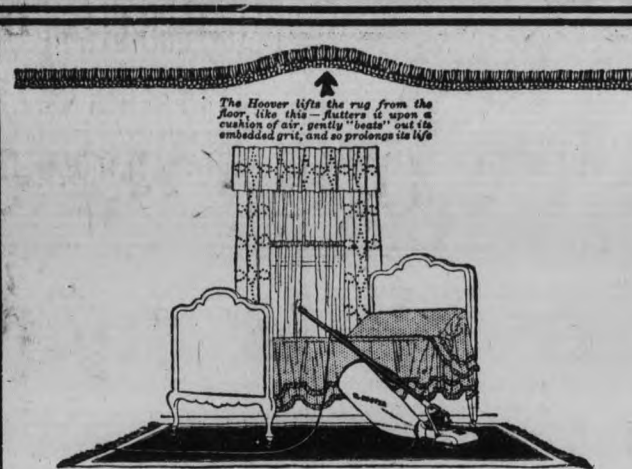

Hon. Beniah Bowman, Minister of Public Works, believed the pulp industry could be made perpetual, for spruce and other timber used by pulp manufacturers could be grown very rapidly. The revenue received from lumbering should be spent in connection with the industry's future.

He did not believe in holding back the timber now owned by the province, but in harvesting it as needed and in providing a new crop.

Hon. H. G. Ferguson, leader of the Ontario Conservative opposition, believed the legitimate lumberman was the best reforestation agent of all.

Elaborate instruction cards placed in each polling booth failed to have any influence on hundreds of persons who treated a ballot with their pencils in about every way that was possible. Although a special squad was carried to the left of each name for the voter's mark, a large proportion of those who voted put their figures on the other side of the sheet at the end of each name, where there was no space provided for the voting mark. There was such an enormous number of ballots spoiled this way, that Returning Officer Scowcroft early in the evening announced that he would allow ballots spoiled in this way to be accepted, because if he threw them out the slaughter of votes would be too great.

Last Minute Whispers Effective.

In one of the aldermanic booths there was only the normal number of spoiled ballots that would be found in any election. This result was attributed to the fact that a proportional representation man stood there all day and whispered into the ear of each voter as he went behind the screen that he must use numbers instead of crosses on his ballot. The voters seem to have been able to retain this message long enough to get their ballots marked correctly.

Cannot Judge Yet.

Last night the aldermanic, trustee and police board ballots were segregated and placed according to the first votes for each candidate. After the segregation in piles the piles were counted. The counting of the second choices was started this morning.

As the count of the first choices only has been made, it cannot yet be said whether proportional representation will result in a more representative council. So far as the count of the first choices goes it is fundamentally the same as if they had been marked with crosses. The transfer of votes will be carried out only when the clerks get down to counting the second and other choices.

No Change on First Choice.

On the first choice votes, the candidates for the Council and the School Board were placed in about the order that was expected. Alderman Dewar ran fifth last year under the old system. This time he is third. At the same time Alderman Todd jumped from ninth last year to first this year. One more labor man, Eugene S. Woodward, will likely have a place on the Council. It is doubtful whether proportional representation has helped him out, as last year he made a good run. This year there were three seats open on the Council, and only ten new candidates for them. Mr. Woodward was one of the three or four of these who were outstanding public figures.

Puzzled Over Ballots.

Proportional representation, so far, has failed to help the other labor candidate, Christian Sivertz. His gain under the new system, as far as the first choices, go is imperceptible. So puzzled were many persons over the new system of voting when they got into the booths that in the busy part of the afternoon voters had to wait in line to get a booth in which to mark their ballots. Some were kept waiting so long that they gave up and came away without voting. Protests against this lack of voting accommodation were made to the newspaper office.

Boston, Jan. 14.—Starving waifs of Europe were the invisible guests last night at a dinner at which 1,000 persons sat down to a meal of stew, bread and cocoa, for which they paid $100 a plate. The invisible ones, to whom the money will go through the European Relief Council, were kept immediately in mind by a vacant chair on which a lighted taper burned, and before which the same dinner, which constitutes the children's regular ration, was placed.

It was announced that the dinner added $250,000 to the Council's funds.

leaving for Vancouver, was "at home" yesterday afternoon at her residence on Vancouver Street, many guests calling at the tea-hour.

Arrangements are now being completed by the Native Sons of B. C. (Post No. 1) to hold their first dance of the new year in the Alexandra Ballroom on Tuesday evening, February 3, 1921. An energetic committee composed of Messrs. K. Groig, H. R. Brown, Ted Hopkins, H. Redgrave, Peter M. McQuade, Robert Yates, Ernest C. McIntyre and W. S. Miles has matters well in hand. Ozard's orchestra has already been engaged for the occasion and it is anticipated by the committee that the dance will prove to be one of the most successful given by the Post.

Miss Jessie Forsshaw, Provincial organizer of the Victorian Order of Nurses returned yesterday from an official visit to the Similkameen and Okanagan Valleys and is leaving again immediately for New Brunswick where she has been temporarily transferred. While in the east Miss Forsshaw will be under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Health of New Brunswick and in this capacity will be the instructor in a public health course, which is to be given under the joint direction of the V. O. N., Red Cross and Ministry of Health. She expects to be away for several months.

An interesting feature of an enjoyable little "Novelty" dance held at the Opera House, Duncan, on Thursday evening was the exhibition of modern ballroom dancing given by T. T. McCreedy and Miss Dorothy Switzer of Victoria. Mr. McCreedy also gave an exposition of the Highland Fling and the Irish reel. Music for the dancing was furnished by Robinson's orchestra, the enjoyable affair coming to a close at 1 o'clock.

Capt. Ronald Gillespie, late of the Gordon Highlanders, is expected to arrive this week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gillespie, after an absence of over six years. Capt. Gillespie left here on October 10, 1914, since when he has had a varied career in France, Germany and Russia. He expects to be in Victoria about six weeks, sailing on the Empress of Russia, March 10, for Shanghai, on his way to Manchuria.

Mrs. Ian Macpherson, of Winnipeg, who has been a guest at "Cherry Bank" for the past three months, left this afternoon for Vancouver, where she will spend the remainder of the winter. Yesterday afternoon she entertained informally at tea at the Empress Hotel, in honor of Miss Wood, of Winnipeg, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Blair, Beach Drive.

The Saturday night dances, held at the Alexandra Club under the club auspices are proving very popular. At to-morrow night's affair the new admission fee, which has been reduced to meet present financial conditions, will go into effect.

Mrs. Whidden, of Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. Wingate-White, of Mill Bay; T. Madigan and Mrs. Madigan, of Westholme, are guests at the Dominion Hotel.

David Evans, of Juneau, Alaska; Arthur Topping, of Toronto; Geo. C. Hoy, of Kamloops; Jas. McEvoy, of Toronto, are new arrivals at the Dominion Hotel.

Minague, of Vancouver, are registered at the Strathcona Hotel.

J. S. Priestly, of Salmon Arm; J. H. Mainier, of Cowichan Station; and P. Cruick and Mrs. Cruick, of Ladysmith, are guests at the Strathcona Hotel.

Mrs. Phipps, of Carberry Gardens, entertained the tea room on Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Bishop of Qu'Appelle and Mrs. Harding.

Capt. J. H. and Mrs. Ritchie Dickson, of Grand Forks, are guests at the Empress Hotel.

Dr. C. H. Godin, of Ottawa, is registered at the Empress Hotel.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL HOLD RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Esmond Will Be Guests of Women's Canadian Club Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Esmond, the distinguished actor and his charming wife, will be the guests of honor at a reception to be given by the Women's Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel on Tuesday afternoon, January 19, at 3.30.

Arrangements of the most attractive description have been made by the Club executive for the occasion. The Empress Hotel Orchestra, under Lou Turner, will be encoined in the ballroom and will furnish a programme of music throughout the afternoon, while Miss Kate Hemmings will contribute contralto solos. Afternoon tea will be served at small tables. Altogether the affair promises to be one of the most delightful social events of the season, besides providing Club members with an opportunity of making a closer acquaintance with the distinguished visitors than can be obtained over the footlights.

CHILD WELFARE

WORK FOR ISLAND

Municipal Welfare Group Also to Be Formed

At a meeting on Wednesday night last, steps were taken towards the formation of a Vancouver Island Council of the Child Welfare Association, following a preliminary discussion held in the Library of the Provincial Buildings. Dr. Raynor and his committee appointed to investigate the matter at a previous meeting delivered a report, Mrs. R. S. Day, Mrs. Peter MacNaughton, Miss McKilligan, and Miss Wark are included in this committee.

The committee was asked to carry on its work along the lines already investigated, and to work towards the permanent formation of the organization on the Island. A municipal child welfare council is also to be formed, and E. C. B. Bagshaw and a committee of Mrs. Menkus, Miss McEwan, Messrs. Copeland and Godfrey were selected to foster the municipal organization. Dr. Raynor occupied the chair, with Miss Bertha Winn acting as secretary for the evening.

SAANICH V.O.N. PLAN FIRST ANNUAL BALL

At Saanichton on Jan. 26; to Aid Funds of Nursing Service

For the purpose of raising necessary funds for the support of their nursing service in Saanich, the Victorian Order of Nurses will hold their first annual ball at the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, on Wednesday evening, January 26. The committee in charge of the arrangements includes Miss Kelly, nurse-in-charge of the district; R. R. F. Sewell and Chief Brogan, while Mrs. J. Hutchins, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Saanich Health Centre, has kindly consented to take charge of the supper arrangements. Heaton's orchestra will provide the music for dancing from 9 to 1 o'clock. As the ball will provide the dual opportunity of enjoying a social function under the most pleasant conditions, and at the same time of assisting a very worthy cause, it is hoped that the public will lend the venture its most earnest support. If the affair meets with the success that its promoters anticipate, the ball will be made an annual event.

original source is a Greek word meaning to reap or gather in a crop. The first to bear the name was a Spanish lady, the wife of a Roman noble called Paulinus. Both Paulinus and his wife were devotees of St. Jerome. The name Theresa had great vogue in Spain, and is finally found as Teresa on a throne of Leon in the tenth century.

The most noted Theresa appears in the sixteenth century, when the Roman Catholic Church produced the remarkable saint of that name through the Spanish connection of the House of Austria. The princesses of Spain and Germany were frequently christened Theresa.

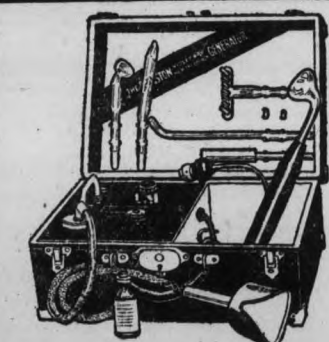

In France it became Teresa through the Queen, Louis XIV. and Provence called Terezon. The Empress-Queen added greatly to its fame, her noble spirit winning all hearts by the famous cry, "Mordiamur pro Rege nostra Maria Theresa."

St. Theresa, of course, brought it to England through the Roman Catholic religion, though its vogue there did not begin until after the Reformation.

England also calls her Terry and Tracy; France makes her Therese. She is Theresa in Portugal, and Teresa and Teresita in Spain; Italy uses Teresa and Teresina, in Germany she is Theresa.

Theresa's talismanic stone is amber. It promises her good health, wards off evil spirits and warns approaching illness by paling in color. Thursday is her lucky day and 3 her lucky number.

SOCIETY EVENTS IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver Set Scatters After New Year Festivities

(Times Special Correspondent.)
Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 14.—After the New Year festivities, society has more or less settled down to the usual round of teas, bridges, and dances. Many people have left this week to seek a milder climate, California's orange groves and stucco villas offering a Circe-like attraction to those who appreciate sunshine. Mrs. John Hendry and her daughter, Mrs. Eric W. Hamber, are among those who have left, and intend to remain in the South during Mr. Hamber's absence in the East. Others who are sojourning in California are Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. M. DesBrisay, Miss Eileen DesBrisay and Miss Bernice DesBrisay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Allen, Miss Audrey Lister, and Mrs. Feast, of Banff. Major Patrick Bennett, of Coldstream, Vanc., left for California on Sunday morning with his small son. Major Bennett is a son of Colonel Bennett, of Victoria, and will make his home near San Francisco. While in town he was the guest of Colonel and Mrs. William S. Buell. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lang have just returned from the South, and Miss Margaret Bryan is expected home within a few days from San Francisco, where she has been spending a month or two.

Mrs. Ray Green, of Victoria, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bull, and Mrs. P. H. Malkin has been the guest of honor at several affairs. Dr. and Mrs. Alison Cumming, Shaughnessy Heights, entertained recently at a dinner in her honor. Other guests were Mrs. A. E. Bull, Mrs. Studd, Colonel Jack Leckie, Percy Foster and Mr. Patterson.

Macdonald, Mrs. Willoughby Brown, Mrs. W. Hodges, Mrs. J. G. Woods, Mrs. Robert Mackenzie, Mrs. A. Jukes, Mrs. Thomas Peacock, Mrs. C. G. Henshaw, Mrs. Taylor Wood, Mrs. Mason Rooke, Mrs. Brignall, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. H. W. Brodie, Mrs. Archibald Smith and Mrs. H. S. Sherwood.

Mrs. Percival A. Anderson and her daughter Mildred also entertained at tea recently. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. D. McGillivray, Mrs. G. A. Wilson and Mrs. F. R. McD. Russell, while Miss Poppy Macdonald, Miss Janet Mackay, Miss Whitehead and Miss Barbara Hogg assisted in serving. A few of the guests were: Mrs. W. W. Boulton, Mrs. J. Murray Lay, Mrs. Newton Boddick, Mrs. Geo. Lindsay, Mrs. Stephen Thompson, Mrs. R. J. Cronie, Mrs. George Chaffey and Miss Janet Drysdale.

Hamber was a hostess at dinner for Mrs. Stewart, when the guests included Mrs. Kenneth Stevenson, Mrs. J. L. Davidson, Captain and Mrs. C. C. Cator, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Taylor, Major and Mrs. Montagu Purber, Colonel Fell, Captain Ian MacKenzie and others. Griffin's residence will be the scene of "The Jewels of the Madonna," while the last one will be held on January 22, at the home of Mrs. T. W. B. London, when Massenet's "Thais" will be presented.

Arrivals and Departures.
It is rumored that Mr. and Mrs. Mischel Cherniavsky will take up their permanent residence in London, England. Mrs. Cherniavsky was formerly Miss Mary Rogers, daughter of Mrs. R. T. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Havemeyer and small daughter, Gloria, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. MacLean, have returned to their home at Qualicum. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Beck have left for Cowichan where they will make their future home. Mrs. Frank Bowser, "Bryn Mawr," Kerisdale, who has been visiting in Victoria for about two weeks, is expected home shortly. Miss Margaret Bowser was hostess at a delightful informal dance on Monday evening. A recent visitor in town from the capital was Garrett M. Hamsworth, of the C.N.R.

An interesting engagement announced this week was that of Miss Jean Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of the Union Bank, Winnipeg, to Major Leslie Goodeve, D.S.O., of Victoria, who is at present visiting in Winnipeg. Major Goodeve has many friends in Vancouver as well as in Victoria.

Several candidates for civic election addressed the meeting of the New Era League on Tuesday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Hugh Wilson, in the chair. A talk was also given by Mrs. J. H. MacGill, who spoke on the Testators' Maintenance Act and on the recent amendments to the Administration Act which entitles the wife to a large share in her husband's estate. Mrs. J. K. Macken, who has been nominated for a candidate for aldermanic honors, explained her platform thoroughly and spoke of her earnest wish to co-operate with the other members of the council in all ways to better the city.

The L.O.D.E. is getting ready for the Provincial Chapter's quarterly meeting here on January 26. The Sir Charles Tupper and Seafarer Chapters will serve tea and luncheon on the occasion.

They were the guests of the Canadian Club at luncheon, and on Friday afternoon, Miss Moore was the guest of honor at the Women's Canadian Club.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

The garnet, to-day's talismanic gem, and also the natal stone of those born on an anniversary of this day, was believed by the ancients to be strangely potent in aiding in the solution of a mystery or in aiding its wearer to decide the best course to take when in a doubtful situation. Doubts aroused by friendship were also solved by it, and it was looked upon as a help in helping lovers to straighten out their difficulties. To-day's lucky color is crimson. It was a custom of Oriental countries for the high priests to wear crimson robes on this day, since they believed that this color gave them mystic powers. The camellia, believed to be potent in bestowing great beauty on women who wear it, is to-day's flower.

Bull-Dog Drummond
By Cyril McNeile
"Sapper"

Drummond laid down the paper on his knees, and stared a little dazedly at the club's immoral founder.

"Holy smoke! liddle," he murmured, "that man Peterson ought to be on the committee here. Verily, I believe, he could galvanize the staff into semblance of activity."

"Did you order anything, sir?" A waiter paused beside him.

"No," murmured Drummond, "but I will rectify the omission. Another large tankard of ale."

The waiter departed, and Hugh picked up the paper again.

"We understand," he murmured gently to himself, "that Mr. Potts, who has recently been indisposed, has returned to the Carlton. . . . Now that's very interesting. . . . He lit a cigarette and lay back in his chair. "I was under the impression that Mr. Potts was safely tucked up in bed, consuming semolina pudding, at Goring. It requires elucidation."

"I beg your pardon, sir," remarked somewhere and you know he's somewhere else—what do you do?"

"Up to date in such cases I have always shot the editor," murmured Algy Longworth. "Come and feed."

"You're so helpful, Algy. A perfect rock of strength. Do you want a job?"

"What sort of a job?" demanded the other suspiciously.

"Oh! not work, dear old boy. Damn it, man—you know me better than that, surely!"

"People are so funny nowadays," returned Longworth gloomily. "The most unlikely souls seem to be doing things and trying to look as if they were necessary. What is this job?"

"If, Algy," he remarked to a man who was looking at the tape machine outside, "the paper says a blighter's worth was still listening in silence to his companion.

"My dear old bean," he murmured ecstatically as Hugh finished, "my very dear old bean. I think it's the most priceless thing I ever heard. Enrol me as a member of the band. And, incidentally, Toby Sinclair is running round in circles asking for trouble. Let's rape him in."

"Go and find him this afternoon, Algy," said Hugh rising. "And tell him to keep his mouth shut. I'd come with you, but it occurs to me that the wretched Potts, bathed in tears at the Carlton, is in need of sympathy. I would have him weep on my shoulder awhile. So long, old dear. You'll hear from me in a day or two."

It was as he reached the pavement that Algy dashed after him, with genuine alarm written all over his face.

"Hugh," he spluttered, "there's only one stipulation. An armistice must be declared during Ascut week."

With a thoughtful smile on his face Drummond sauntered along Pall Mall. He had told Longworth more or less on the spur of the moment, knowing that gentleman's capabilities to a nicety. Under a cloak of assumed flippancy he concealed an iron nerve which had never yet failed him; and, in spite of the fact that he wore an entirely unnecessary eyeglass, he could see further into a brick wall than most of the people who called him a fool.

It was his suggestion of telling Toby Sinclair that caused the smile. For it had started a train of thought in Drummond's mind which seemed to him to be good. If Sinclair—who not two or three more equally trusty sportsmen? Why not a gang of the boys?

Toby possessed a V.C., and a good one—for there are grades of the V.C., and those grades are appreciated to a nicety by the recipient's brother officers if not by the general public. The show would fit Toby like a glove. Then there was Ted Jerningham, who combined the roles of an amateur actor of more than average merit with an ability to hit anything at any range with every conceivable type of firearm. And Jerry Seymour in the Flying Corps. . . . Not a bad thing to have a flying man—up one's sleeve. . . . And possibly some one versed in the way of tanks might come in handy. . . .

The smile broadened to a grin; surely life was very good. And then the grin faded, and something like a frown took its place. For he had arrived at the Carlton, and reality had come back to him. He seemed to see the almost headless body of a man lying in a Belfast slum. . . .

"Mr. Potts will see no one, sir," remarked the man to whom he addressed his question. "You are about the twentieth gentleman who has been here already to-day."

Hugh had expected this, and smiled genially.

"Precisely, my stout fellow," he remarked, "but I'll lay a small amount of money that they were newspaper men. Now, I'm not. And I think that if you will have this note delivered to Mr. Potts, he will see me."

He sat down at a table, and drew a sheet of paper towards him. Two facts were certain: First, that the man upstairs was not the real Potts; second, that he was one of Peterson's gang. The difficulty was to know exactly how to word the note. There might be some mystic pass-word, the omission of which would prove him an impostor at once. At length he took a pen and wrote rapidly; he would have to chance it.

"Urgent. A message from headquarters."

He sealed the envelope and handed it with the necessary five shillings for postage to the man. Then he sat down to wait. It was going to be a ticklish interview if he was to learn anything, but the thrill of the game had fairly got him by now, and he watched eagerly for the messenger's return. After what seemed an interminable delay he saw him crossing the lounge.

"Mr. Potts will see you, sir. Will you come this way?"

"Is he alone?" said Hugh, as they were whirled up in the lift.

"Yes, sir. I think he was expecting you."

"Indeed," murmured Hugh. "How nice it is to have one's expectations realized."

He followed his guide along a corridor, and paused outside a door while he went into a room. He heard a murmur of voices, and then the man reappeared.

"This way, sir," he said, and Hugh stepped inside, to stop with a involuntary gasp of surprise. The man seated in the chair was Potts, to all intents and purposes. The likeness was extraordinary, and had he not known that the real article was at Goring he would have been completely deceived himself.

The man waited till the door was closed, then he rose and stepped forward suspiciously.

"I don't know you," he said. "Who are you?"

"Since when has every one employed at headquarters known one another?" Drummond returned guardedly. "And, incidentally, your likeness to our lamented friend is wonderful. It very nearly deceived even me."

The man, not ill-pleased, gave a short laugh.

"I'll pass, I think. But it's risky. These cursed reporters have been badgering the whole morning. . . . And if his wife or somebody comes over, what then?"

Drummond nodded in agreement. "Quite so. But what can you do?"

"It wasn't like Rosca to bungle in Belfast. He's never left a clue before, and he had plenty of time to do the job properly."

"A name inside a breast-pocket might easily be overlooked," remarked Hugh, seizing the obvious clue.

"Are you making excuses for him?" snarled the other. "He's failed, and failure is death. Such is our rule. Would you have it altered?"

"Most certainly not. The issues are far too great for any weakness."

"You're right, my friend—you're right. Long live the Brotherhood." He stared out of the window with smouldering eyes, and Hugh preserved a discreet silence. Then suddenly the other broke out again. . . .

"Have they killed that insolent puppy of a soldier yet?"

"Er—not yet," murmured Hugh mildly.

"They must find the American at once." The man thumped the table emphatically. "It was important before—at least his money was. Now with this blunder—it's vital."

"Precisely," said Hugh. "Precisely."

"I've already interviewed one man from Scotland Yard, but every hour increases the danger. However, you have a message for me. What is it?"

Hugh rose and casually picked up his hat. He had got more out of the interview than he had hoped for, and there was nothing to be gained by prolonging it. But it struck him that Mr. Potts' impersonator was a man of unpleasant disposition, and that tactically a flanking movement to the door was indicated. And, being of an open nature himself, it is possible that the real state of affairs showed for a moment on his face. He that as it may, something sudden aroused the other's suspicions, and with a snarl of fury he sprang past Hugh to the door.

CIVIL SERVANTS TO LOSE NOTHING,
PREMIER SAYSBut May Not Get Increases on Top of Present SalariesPUBLIC THINKS SERVICE
A NICE "CUSHY" JOB

Premier Oliver to-day gave out a denial of the story that civil servants are to lose their salary bonuses. "They never had any salary bonus," said the Premier. "Some time ago, before the election, they asked for a salary bonus, but they didn't get it. All these stories are being put out now in an effort to force the hands of the Government."

It is understood, however, that civil servants may not get their statutory increase in salary this year, because the cost of living is dropping and wage schedules outside are falling fast. This statutory increase is regulated according to grades and classes. It is not compulsory for the Government to give it, Premier Oliver explained to-day. The Civil Service Act says that the civil servants who have been in service for certain periods may have their salaries raised at the end of each year if the Government recommends and the Legislature votes the money.

"But there is no mandate for a statutory increase," said the Premier. "The Act does not say that the increases must be given every year. If no increase were given this year, civil servants would lose nothing. They would simply not be getting an increase on what they are getting now. If the cost of living continues to go down they will be that much better off than last year."

Civil Servants Get Busy.

Members of the Provincial executive of the Civil Service Association have been summoned to Vancouver from all parts of the Province. They will meet there Saturday afternoon to discuss what can be done about the salary question. Superannuation allowances for civil servants and the formation of a one big national union of Municipal, Provincial and Federal employees, which was urged by the Victoria branch early this week, will also be taken up.

Want Service Increases.

Civil servants take the stand that provision for a statutory raise in the Civil Service Act not to cover increase in the cost of living, but as a reward for continuity of service and a recognition of the employee's increase in ability, experience and value for the Government. They point out that the bonus was urged to cover the cost of living and it was proposed that the Government should be dropped as the cost of living decreased. But the bonus was in no way to affect the statutory increase which are the natural increases employees in most work at regular intervals as they become more proficient. Civil servants are to put the salary increase question up to the Government in this light.

Public Has False View.

"The Government is not wholly to blame in this," said one prominent civil servant, who is not allowed to permit his name to be used. "To a certain extent the Government is forced to keep down civil service salaries by the attitude of the public. Why, a lot of people think of the civil servants as nothing but a horde sitting in fat, cushy jobs over in nice offices in the Parliament Buildings, while everybody else is struggling to make ends meet or is out of a job altogether. The public never heard of the confining and wearisome work done by civil servants at shockingly low salaries."

WOULD CONVERT
OFFICIAL MEETING TO WATER DEBATE

As a sequel to last night's debate of the Saatchi water by-law at Keating, when A. E. Hall, Jr., challenged Reeve Watson to convert to-night's meeting at Toimie into a continuous debate, Mr. Hall has sent the following letter to Reeve Watson:

"I challenge you and one other Gordon Henderon to debate the water by-law with R. E. Collis and myself whether the water by-law should or should not pass on Saturday. And further, that this matter should take precedence at the meeting to be held in the Toimie School to-night."

"And that you should meet me in my office some time this morning to arrange the necessary details and to decide upon a chairman."

"And further, that there should not be any questions asked until the debate be concluded."

"I have stated at the Keating meeting that should you decline to accept my challenge it should be taken as an acknowledgment by you that the by-law was unworthy of support."

Reeve Watson's Attitude.—"I have received a challenge from Mr. Hall to make the water by-law the primary subject matter of to-night's meeting at the Toimie School, with Mr. Collis taking part in the debate," said Reeve Watson on being asked his intentions.

"There is only one thing possible for me to do, that is to refuse the request."

"The meeting is one of a series authorized by the Council for the presentation of the condition of Saatchi to the voters. The authority on which the meeting have been held distinctly specifies that 'only candidates for municipal offices shall have the floor.'"

"Naturally, electors present have every right to ask all the questions pertinent to municipal affairs they wish, and are entitled to expect a

Interested Meeting in Ward Four.—Fifty residents of Ward Four, Saatchi, gathered last night at the Strawberry Vale Hall to hear Reeve Watson's annual report. The Reeve was the first speaker and was given much applause when he left early to attend another meeting at Keating. Councillor Henderson gave a resume of the roadwork done in Ward Four and the candidacy of A. E. Hall, Jr., for the Reeveship, was advanced by his son on his arrival late in the evening. Other speakers were Councillor-elect McWilliam, Trustee-elect A. E. Hull and R. Macnicol.

Switch May be Made In Attacking Force

Eddie Oatman May Play Left Wing and Harry Meeking Right Wing in Big Hockey Battle With Vancouver To-night

In an effort to perfect their system of converging on the goal-mouth it is quite likely that the Aristocrats will switch their line-up for the critical battle with the Vancouver Millionaires at the arena to-night. Manager Lester Patrick is now giving very careful thought to a plan to switch the positions of Capt. Eddie Oatman and Harry Meeking. When the whistle toots the fans need not be surprised if Oatman is holding down left wing and Meeking is over on the right. The most dangerous and effective way of bagging goals is for the attacking force to converge the opposing goal. When the wing men are in the centre the passes are shorter and more snappy, and defence men are not given the same opportunity to intercept the puck.

One Wing Converging.
In the past the Aristocrats have systematically converged but from one wing. Oatman usually starts to work in after passing the blue line, but Meeking has a tendency to hang on to the boards and many of his long passes to centre ice have been intercepted.
The "strategy board" got an idea that Meeking might draw in better if he was shoved over on to the right wing. Eddie Oatman can play either wing, so his shift to left will not affect his play. In fact, it may improve his shooting ability, as it will place him in a better position in front of the net.

It May Turn Trick.
In practice this week Meeking and Eddie have been working in their new positions and they showed remarkably well. The players have a hunch that this switch may bolster the strength of their attack, and Lester Patrick may decide to give the new front a try-out this evening.

The game to-night is arousing great excitement in the city. The seating plan at the Victoria Arena office was practically sold out late this afternoon and it is possible that several hundred standing tickets will be disposed of. The rush seats will no doubt go exceptionally strong again. With a full house supporting them the Aristocrats will have the firm intention of humbling the Millionaires. The Cookies are not anxious to go under as they suffered a severe check in Seattle on Wednesday night and another loss to-night will put them two games down on the league leaders. However, the Aristocrats are keen to win in order to pull out of the rut.
The best hockey pyrotechnics are always provided in the Victoria Vancouver clashes. The inter-city rivalry is as much apparent in hockey as it is in other things.

Both teams are in the best of condition so that no allis will be accepted on that score after the game. The final word from Lester Patrick is as follows:

"We're going out to do our best. We want the game and will play hard to win it."
The probable line-up will be as follows:
Victoria: Position: Vancouver.
Fowler.....Goal.....Lehman
C. Loughlin.....Defence.....Duncan
Johnson.....Defence.....Cook
W. Loughlin.....Rover.....McKay
H. Meeking.....R. Wing.....Skinner

QUOTES
The match between J. Jeffries and Tom Alexander at the Willows Quoting Ground on Saturday next, will be of unusual interest, as both of these players are very evenly matched.
As there are quite a few expert quilters in the city club, the management has decided on a series of matches between its members to find out who are the best, as they desire to place an all-star team in the contests that are now being arranged with other clubs.
The handbags will be carried on as usual, in two series and one inter-club match every Saturday at 2 p.m.
Last Saturday J. Lelper beat Tom Alexander in the first series, and C. Lloyd beat T. Reid. Both of these players gave a brilliant display.
The club membership is growing steadily, and Victoria now has the largest club in B. C. and probably the finest ground, which enables six games to be played at one time.

HARD RUGBY GAMES SLATED TO-MORROW

Cardinals to Meet Bays and Old Boys to Tussle With Wanderers

The resumption of the Barnard Cup League rugby matches on Saturday will produce some very fine competition. The Wanderers play the Old Boys at the University School grounds and will be refereed by T. A. Sparks.
In their last clash the Old Boys were the first to score, but were out-generated by more experienced opponents. This time the Collegians, who have put in some strenuous training, figure that they can turn the tables on last year's champions. The Wanderers, however, are always a hard team to beat, and can be relied upon to give a first class exposition of rugged.

Bays and Cardinals.
The game at Oak Bay is between the Bays and the Cardinals, and should furnish the spectators with a series of thrills. Their last contest ended in a scoreless draw, after one of the most grueling battles seen this year. Both of the youngsters have a large percentage of youngsters, and can all go the full distance at a fast clip.
The Cardinals are younger and have had more practise and may win. The Bays on the other hand are very aggressive, and have not lost a match up to the present.

A four game series are very well matched, and if the ground is at all good some very fair rugby should be seen. The next McKechnie Cup game will be on January 22 at Oak Bay, when the local fifteen expect to win from the mainlanders.
H. Gillespie will referee the Cardinals and Bays game at Oak Bay to-morrow.

The Teams
The Cardinals' team will line up as follows: Full back, R. Goodacre; Three—A. Bannan, W. Huxtable, C. Cowan; A. Webster; Five—Eighties—G. McRae; Halves—W. James, S. Rumsden; Forwards—J. McRae, E. Bond, J. Rhodes, R. Parfait, F. T. L. Blythe, V. Gravalin; Reserves—L. McPhillips.
Old Boys—Macdonald, K. Ker; Hanbury, Holmes and B. Wilson; Tolmeyer; Robertson and M. Milligan; Thurnburn, Helgeson and Milligan.

HERMAN DEFEATED ENGLAND'S PRIDE

Jimmy Wilde Went Out of His Class to Meet Pete and Lost in Hard Fight

Midgets Served London Fans With Great Scrap; Herman Was Over-weight

London, Jan. 14.—Pete Herman, the former American bantamweight champion, won over Jimmy Wilde last night. The referee stopped the battle and awarded the decision to Herman in the seventeenth round.
Wilde was sent to the floor three times in the seventeenth and the referee stopped the contest to save Wilde, who was helpless.

There was a terrific fight on the ropes in the fifteenth. Herman, with left to the ribs and right to the jaw, appeared to have Wilde half out, but was unable to finish him before the bell.
At the fourteenth round Herman was considered to have the advantage of the fighting so far as points were concerned, although Wilde was still fighting gamely.
Herman was supposed to make 118 pounds for Wilde but was overweight when the men were called to the ring. Wilde showed his sportsmanship and agreed to fight, but said he would still claim the flyweight title in case he was defeated.

The Prince Was There.
Ten thousand persons, including the Prince of Wales and other notables, witnessed the contest and evinced enthusiasm throughout the fight, especially in the fifteenth round, when there was a terrific battle on the ropes.
After the bout last night Herman said: "Wilde is the greatest boxer that I have ever seen. I was in better condition for this fight than I have ever been before."

Levin's Bout Off.
The twenty-round bout between Battling Levin, former light heavyweight champion of the United States, and Bombardier Wells was postponed earlier in the day, when it was learned that the American had injured his arm in training. Doctors examined the injury and pronounced Levin as unable to go through with the match.

Toe-Holds of No Use on This Bird With Wooden Leg

Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 14.—The unusual situation of a wrestler with an artificial limb was revealed to-day in the appointment of A. W. Snedeker as a member of the Cornell University wrestling team.

Snedeker suffered the amputation of his right leg below the knee in his boyhood. Despite this physical handicap he has developed into a skilful wrestler in the 145-pound class.

"BILLIE" FITZGERALD IS REMAINING SILENT

St. Catharines, Jan. 14.—"Nothing to say" was the answer of Billy Fitzgerald yesterday regarding the statement made by Con Jones, of Vancouver, that the St. Kitts Lacrosse star was to organize a professional team for the East and take it to Victoria, B. C. Fitzgerald remarked it was rather early to make any announcement as he had not yet decided whether or not to do so, but his manner would indicate that he had made some progress on a prospective line up.

HARRIERS WILL RUN UNDER "Y" COLORS

A well-attended meeting of the proposed Victoria Harriers was held at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday evening. Ernie Harwood occupied the chair and Harold Sewell of the V.I.A.A. acted as recording secretary.
Being confronted with the question of suitable quarters the runners decided to revive the old Y.M.C.A. Harriers and be known by that name, thereby gaining the use of the Association building as headquarters. The opinion was also expressed that the Y.M.C.A. was the logical training ground for promising young runners. The delegates from the G.W.V.A. and V.I.A.A. were heartily in accord with this plan.
H. C. Brook was appointed to act as president, until a permanent executive has been selected, and H. Whitbread consented to act as secretary-treasurer pro tem.

It was decided to hold a "slow pack" run to-morrow afternoon, starting from the Y.M.C.A. at 3 o'clock. E. C. Smith will act as "pace" and H. Whitbread as "whip".
The first cross-country run will take place on the afternoon of the twenty-second of this month, but the course to be taken has not yet been decided.

LATEST BASEBALL STAR

GEORGE SISLER

WESTS AND METS ARE IN FOR HOT TUSSELE

Teams Meeting in Vancouver Island League Fixture; Five Other Games

To-morrow's soccer card is as follows:
V. I. League.
Metropolis vs. Victoria West at Royal Athletic Park. Referee, P. Payne.

Junior League.
James Bays vs. Foresters, at Beacon Hill upper ground. Referee, Horan.

Rockside Roosters vs. Naval Brigade, at Central Park lower ground. Referee, Campbell.

The Feature Game.
The feature game to-morrow will be provided by the Mets and Wests, two of the hottest rivals in local football. They meet in their first clash in the Vancouver Island League and it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand. The Mets are slight favorites but will find the Wests in top form.

It seems that Sisler was developed as a ball player at the New (Ohio) High School. His performance there in 1910 was of such an unusual calibre that he began to attract some little notice in the Rubber City. His good work continued in 1911, and then he was signed by the Akron club of the Ohio League. He played for the 1912 season. He was later transferred to the Columbus club of the American Association. At the time the pitcher was who was called "sold to midding." Columbus sold him to the Pittsburgh Pirates on August 25, 1912. Then Sisler conceived the idea that he wanted a college education and went through with it.

Without regard for his sale to the Pirates he had orders to report, he went to the University of Michigan. While at Ann Arbor, Sisler came under the watchful eye of Major Branch Rickey, who at that time was coaching the baseball team of the college. Rickey saw the makings of a good pitcher in the big boy from Akron and went to the job. There seems to be a rather vague spot in Sisler's career, for it is recorded that he was state star of the Michigan team, although he had played pro ball. Despite his rating he was an excellent college pitcher, having played throughout his college days.

When Sisler graduated from Michigan it was only natural that he should turn to the diamond again, and accordingly, he was signed up by the St. Louis Browns. Then the fun began.

A War Started.
Barney Dreyfus, the well-meaning owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, with whom Sisler had signed his pre-college contract, rose up on his hind legs in righteous wrath. Barney told the world that Sisler had signed with the Pirates in his pre-campus days and, although forfeiting his contract by failing to report, still was carried on the reserve list. Garry Herrmann got the judiciary machinery of the National Commission at work, and the matter to be decided by Brother Dreyfus, the two twirlers was awarded to the Browns. It is on record that the Pittsburgh magnate laid plans to raise Garry Herrmann's hair for the ruling, but he was unceremoniously squelched.

During the period of litigation the manner in which Sisler was introduced into fact company was made known. It seems that one day Artie Hoffman, one-time utility player of the Cubs, came tearing into Barney's sanctum all "hot up" about a new line in the bushes. Barney and Artie hit the trail to Bagtown, O., and saw the tall twirler burning them over the plate in the local independent team's practice. Barney then found out that the Columbus Club could Sisler's contract, so he reached the officials of that club on the wire.

At once and Sisler was sold. But he never reported.
His First Appearance.
On June 28, 1915, the Browns were holding forth against the White Sox. There was a call for a pinch hitter and Sisler trotted out to fill the bill. That was his major league debut. In addition, he twirled the last few innings, acquitting himself well. The fight that the Browns had made to keep him from disappearing into the smoke of Pittsburgh was justified, even in the mind of the most critical St. Louis fan.

Exactly a week later, Sisler was called upon by Branch Rickey to take his regular turn in the box and succeeded in defeating the Cleveland Indians by a 3 to 1 score. In the contest he showed up splendidly as a base-runner, pitcher and hitter. As this extraordinary player continued his good work, the Browns manager decided that Sisler was much more valuable as a first sacker than as a pitcher, and he was shifted accordingly. Strange to say, he took to the new position as a duck does to water.

Was "Razberry" Proof.
From that day to this, Sisler has been easily the best first baseman in the American League. He is one rival, Stumpy McInnis, was on a par in fielding, but in base running and in stick wielding the diminutive Bostonian was outclassed. Unlike many collegians breaking into the big league, Sisler was "razberry" proof. No amount of "riding" or "razzing" has any effect on the former Michigan collegian, and for that reason he has become popular with many hot-headed fans.

Sisler's phenomenal stick work continued, and in the middle of 1915 Leo Nuhumaker, who was then coaching for the Yankees, was reported to have discovered the Browns' star using a "loaded" bat of most formidable get-up. According to the New York Herald, Sisler has a heavy bat, flattened on one side, and having heavy thumb tacks driven into the flat surface. This was the way the long slashing hits that said across the infield like bullets were explained. Happily nothing came of the accusation.

An Offer Comes.
When Sisler really found himself one of the mightiest sluggers in the American League, the baseball world awaited to see what length of time he would remain on an essentially second division team. The world did not wait long, for last September Branch Rickey went out of his way to tell the fans that Messrs. Ruppert and Huston, owners of the Yankees, had offered $200,000 in cash for the Browns' first-round star. Rickey thereupon declared that no amount of money would induce him to get rid of the lad, whom he regards as a personal development.

GEO. SILBURN WINS HUNDRED-YARD SWIM

The Y. M. C. A. Swimming Club held the second weekly handicap of the season in the "Y" tank last evening, when the following events were decided:
One hundred yards sprint—First, George Silburn; second, J. Barclay; third, W. T. M. Barratt. Time, 58 seconds.

Plunge for distance—First, W. T. M. Barratt (scratch); second, Jack Barclay; third, Nev. Goff. Distance, 47 feet 6 inches.

Forty yards, back stroke—First, Jack Barclay (scratch); second, Geo. Silburn; third, W. T. M. Barratt. Time, 30 1-5 seconds.

Silburn's exceptionally fast time in the forty yards back stroke was a surprise, showing that his ability as a swimmer is not confined to the longer distances.
John L. Larson, the club's coach, acted as handicapper and timekeeper.

VICTORIA ASSURED OF ITS THIRD FULL SIZED GOLF COURSE

United Service Club Endorses Scheme For New Links Near Uplands

Before the end of the present year it is quite likely that Victoria will be able to boast of its third eighteen-hole golf course. Energetic efforts are now being made by the United Service Club to put over a scheme for new links near the Uplands, and judging from the amount of enthusiasm being displayed the organization bids fair to accomplish its purpose.

At present the members of the United Service Club, the senior golf body in Victoria, have twelve holes of balls about on a nine-hole course. The club has been growing rapidly of late and the question of new links has arisen.

Last year a referendum for municipal links was submitted to the ratepayers, but it was turned down. That, however, to the United Service Club, the ground which was to have been used as a municipal links will in all probability be purchased and converted into one of the finest courses on the coast.

Members Want Course.
Last evening the members of the United Service Club held a splendid representative gathering in the Spratt-Shaw School and unanimously endorsed the scheme for the construction of the projected golf course.

The report of the special committee, which has been working on the scheme for some time, was submitted to the meeting. It set forth the general plan of the project, and particulars of what had been ascertained as to the financial problems of the scheme and what work had been done on the tentative scheme outlined by the Hudson's Bay Company as a basis for negotiations.

After the incorporation of the club the question of raising the money for the construction of the links will come up. Debentures will be issued, and when these are subscribed for to the necessary amount the club will be in a position to go to the Hudson's Bay Company to complete negotiations for the acquisition of the land for the purpose.

Quick Collections.
It is expected that the subscription lists will be filled very rapidly. If this proves to be the case the club hopes to have a portion of the playing course ready for play before the end of the year.

Incorporation of the United Service Golf Club will be proceeded with at once, and by-laws are being drafted by the committee, and will be posted in the club house, after which the articles of incorporation will be submitted to a general meeting for approval, the meeting to be held in about two or three weeks' time.

BASKETBALLERS' TOUR.
Winnipeg, Jan. 14.—The University of Manitoba basketball team, present champions of the West, leave to-night for Saskatoon and Edmonton. They play at Saskatoon Saturday and Edmonton Monday.

VARSITY RUGGERS DROP FROM LEAGUE

Vancouver, Jan. 14.—The 'Varsity Rugby team has decided to drop out of all city schedules and cup ties as so many of the players have taken up hockey and basketball. The management, however, has intimated to the Union that several players will still be available for inter-city games, and, if elected, will be in the "prep" team to visit Victoria Saturday week.

This will leave but two teams, the Rowing Club and Centrals, in the Tisdall Cup competition.

JACK AND JESS MAY NOT GET IN RING

Los Angeles, Jan. 14.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, heavy-weight champion, said here yesterday the scheduled match between Dempsey and Jess Willard in New York, March 17, might be called off because of the recent ruling by the New York Boxing Commission fixing $15 as the highest admission fee to be charged at championship matches. He said this meant that not more than $150,000 could be obtained if the bout was held at Madison Square Garden, the largest place available in New York that time of the year. "That sum is not enough to handle the match," he said.

A large crust of bread, spread one inch thick with butter, to which was attached a card bearing the words "Here's something for needy Government employees," was found in a package from a mysterious "Cele Sam" opened at the Federal Building, Chicago.

Cecile Young, heiress to the $25,000,000 estate of the late Otto Young, founder of the Fair, Chicago department store, had to buy off 22 other women before she could go on her honeymoon with the Baron de Korwin, it was revealed in court.

NEW ALDERMAN IS LONG RESIDENT

Captain Aitken Is Assured of Seat at Council Board

Victoria's new alderman, Captain A. M. Aitken, was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, June 1, 1872, and educated at the local schools. Leaving school to serve his apprenticeship, he completed training as a machinist in one of the leading shipyards of Aberdeen for three and a half years. At twenty years of age he decided to come to America, and the first three years on this continent he divided his time between various engagements at his trade in the United States and in Montreal. Coming to Victoria immediately afterwards, he spent three years as master mechanic with the B. A. Paint Company, leaving to take a position with the dredging service of the Dominion Government.

He was inspector of works on the Lobnitz, and remained with the dredging service until nearly three

TRANSPORTATION METHOD.

For the convenience of Saanich ratepayers residing in the city, the Central Ratepayers' Association has opened headquarters in the Douglas Street rooms vacated by the campaign organization of Mayor Porter, opposite the Douglas Hotel. Special telephones, 631 and 637 have been installed, and a system of automobile transport has been organized. Voters are asked to communicate with the headquarters if requiring transportation, cars of the city system will bring the electors to headquarters, where they will be transferred to the fleet of cars serving the polling stations, this plan assuring that the cars running to the polls will carry capacity loads and a quicker service.

It is announced by the Central Ratepayers' Association that it is actively supporting the candidature of Reeve Watson and the passage of the water by-law, but being a Saanich-wide organization it is not taking any part in the promotion of the interests of any of the candidates for the Council.

CANDIDATE FOR REEVESHIP GIVES VIEWS ON BYLAW

As a reply to the views of Reeve Watson on the practicability of the extension of the water service to Gordon Head, published in yesterday's Times, A. E. Hall submits the following:

"Taking the opportunity afforded by The Times to make a brief reply to the statement appearing in The Daily Times of yesterday from Reeve Watson on the Water Bylaw. I, too, did not have time upon the platform to explain as fully as I should have liked the reasons why Mr. Hall, Sr., and others are opposing the Water Bylaw.

"In the first place, we oppose the bylaw on the grounds that it is not fair to the municipality as a whole, for it has been proved and admitted that the system will not be able to pay for itself, and the present area will not be able to bear the burden. Thus the municipality as a whole will be compelled to bear the burden that the people of Gordon Head are thrusting upon them.

"The most important question in this present bylaw is, 'Who is going to pay?' Any system to pay must have a sufficiently large layout of laterals to levy a frontage rate upon. In the present area from the very commencement there were sufficient streets laid out along which to put lateral pipes. It is on them that the frontage levied brings in the revenue. In Gordon Head not one-third of the land is subdivided, and there is consequently no street along which cheap laterals can be laid, and from which a good revenue can be obtained.

"I submit that the present area has paid simply because at the outset there were the streets along which the laterals could be laid, and upon which a full eight cents per foot was charged. In the present area there is not at present sufficient subdivided property to serve with laterals, there is, however, a main trunk many thousands of feet in length, that has to be paid for, and moreover there is not a sufficient amount of land that can be assessed at the full rate of eight cents, for it is one of the terms that on such and where there is a frontage of more than one hundred feet the rate charged will be eight cents per foot for the first hundred, and for every succeeding hundred only one-third of the amount that was charged on the first hundred. I ask the public to use common sense, how can a system pay when it is to be assessed at that rate and when there will not be the laterals installed that are to bring in the revenue.

"Again I say that it behooves the people of Saanich to take care how they vote on this measure. The Reeve admits that with the Water Bylaw there is a possibility of subdivision of Gordon Head. I say that there is usually something behind every such measure as this that is put to the people."

Fifteen Years of Progress
in Motion Picture Industry

L. E. Ouimet, Owner of First "Movie" Theatre, Has Interesting Career.

Fifteen years ago this January, the first theatre devoted exclusively to motion pictures in Canada was opened in Montreal, by L. E. Ouimet, new president of the Specialty Film Import Limited. After having been two years as motion picture operator with the Kinematograph Company, showing pictures on a vaudeville programme at Sohmer Park or between the acts in the regular vaudeville theatres, and on the streets for advertising purposes, Mr. Ouimet took over the "Portier Hall," originally built as a vaudeville theatre, but at the time being operated as a dance hall.

Was Confident of Future
At this time the question of whether the motion picture was just a passing fancy or whether it was to be a permanent institution, was a question which few had the courage to decide, but Mr. Ouimet was confident that there was no limit to the development of motion pictures and he was then already known by the general public for his association with this new branch of entertainment. It was his popularity which suggested the idea of calling this the first Canadian moving picture, "The Ouimetoscope." Mr. Ouimet's ideas at that time were far-sighted; and imbued with the confidence of the great future which lay behind motion pictures, this theatre was operated on the principles of what the theatres are becoming to-day—the best pictures obtainable, reserved seats at both matinee and evening, with prices ranging from ten to forty cents. Right from the opening day, the Ouimetoscope was a success; and from week to week the audience increased, making it evident that there was a demand for this form of entertainment.

Films Were Rented

At that time, the films exhibited were secured direct from New York, on a rental basis; but with the success of this theatre others became enthusiastic for the future development of the motion picture industry and were enquiring of the possibility of obtaining films and motion picture operators, which gave Mr. Ouimet the idea of purchasing outright the films exhibited, with the prospect of realizing the opportunity of renting these films to theatres that would subsequently open. Mr. Ouimet's next step was the securing of a few projection machines, and the training of operators to run them.

Exchange Opened

The accumulation of films and the rapid development of the popularity of motion pictures saw Mr. Ouimet open an exchange for the circulation of films in the Fall of 1906. In December of the same year, this pioneer of the motion picture industry in Canada purchased the Ouimetoscope property for $100,000, and in the following May closed the hall and immediately proceeded with the erection of a real motion picture theatre at a cost of $50,000 (valued to-day at $100,000), which was to be the first theatre erected for the sole purpose of the exhibition of motion pictures in North America. This new Ouimetoscope theatre was opened on August 7, 1907, and still remains one of the most up-to-date motion picture theatres on the continent.

Launches Out

In the meantime, the possibility of having other motion picture houses in Montreal suggested itself to Mr. Ouimet, and in February of the same year the Karn Dancing Hall in the West End of the city of Montreal was acquired and operated as a motion picture theatre. On account of varied conditions then existing, this theatre was operated for only a few months and Mr. Ouimet relinquished his lease in order to devote more time to the exchange department of motion pictures.

Illness Intervened

Ill health then stepped in to retard the progress of Mr. Ouimet's enterprise, and it was necessary completely to abandon business for four years and seek change of climate. Returning in 1914, after a complete cure, Mr. Ouimet proceeded to put his whole energy into regaining the time lost, and in December of that year signed a contract with Charles Pathe, the veteran pioneer of motion pictures, for the distribution of Pathe films in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. In April, 1915, the success which had rewarded his re-entry into the motion picture business enabled him to obtain an extension of this contract to the Province of Ontario, and in the following May this contract was extended to include the Western Provinces, and so constituted the present formation of the Dominion-wide organization of the Specialty Film Import Limited, which now stretches from coast to coast with branch offices in all leading cities. From an initial distribution of 2,000 feet of film per week, Specialty Film Import Limited now distributes an average of 65,000 feet each week, and routes this film to upwards of 700 different theatres throughout the Dominion.

Topical Pictures

The value of the Topical or News Film in entertaining and interesting the public was ever prevalent in the mind of this Canadian pioneer of the motion picture industry, and it was when the present King, as Prince of Wales, visited this country on the occasion of the Quebec Tercentenary, twelve years ago, that Mr. Ouimet purchased his first motion picture camera. Realizing that such a historic occasion should be handed to posterity by means of a life-like picture, Mr. Ouimet photographed, developed and printed the film himself. He often recalls the awe and amazement with which he was received at public functions with his motion picture camera; and when he now sees an army of motion picture cameramen attending a function, it recalls the difficulties which he then experienced in making these News pictures. The carrying of this camera was the commencement of the "British-Canadian Pathe News," which is now a household name in the country in the majority of theatres, and every week is watched by approximately one million people in the Dominion.

Canadian Service

With true Canadian spirit, Mr. Ouimet always contended that Canada should have a news film giving all the events of the world which Canadians want to see, edited from a Canadian viewpoint. It was an up-hill task; the number of theatres operating limited the demand, and the expense was a big one. Creating the demand took considerable time; but, overcoming these hardships, the "British-Canadian Pathe News" has come to the fore and is now the exclusively Canadian News Reel which deals with all subjects throughout the world.

Through the organization of Pathe in England, France and the United States, and Mr. Ouimet's organization in Canada, news of the whole world is collected in Montreal, edited and shipped across the country four times a week, in order to keep the items as up-to-date as it is practicable.

Nine Hundred Picture Houses

On the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of the opening of the Ouimetoscope, the first theatre opened in Canada for the exhibition of motion pictures, some idea of the progress in these fifteen years may be gauged by the fact that at present there are in Canada upwards of 900 moving picture theatres, representing an approximate value of $70,000,000. It is also a coincidence that there has been opened in Montreal, this month, the first building in Canada especially constructed for the purpose of housing Film Exchanges.

The erection of such a building had been frequently advocated by Mr. Ouimet, who considered that a fire-proof building, having special appointments essential to the motion picture industry, was required. H. W. Conover, manager of the Imperial Theatre, was of the same opinion and made practically the idea by interesting the owners of his theatre in the providing of the capital to erect this ten-story building on Mayor Street, known as the Albee Building.

The offices of the Specialty Film Import Limited will occupy the whole

When there is any deputation to meet the government on tariffs, censorship, or other matters, Mr. Ouimet is looked upon as a father of the industry and always called upon to lead a deputation to support the moving picture interests. He has always been a strong advocate of clean pictures, expressing fine sentiments and imagination, and has been instrumental in creating many progressive steps for the development of educational, scenic and other instructive pictures.

In the woods were four machine guns, which had been used by the French and were abandoned when the gas attack drove back the French troops. ## NOTED JOURNALIST OF SATURDAY POST OFF TO CHINA

Mrs. Martin Egan Went Out on Russia Last Evening

A passenger on the Empress of Russia, which cleared last night for the Orient, was Mrs. Eleanor Franklin Egan, wife of the well-known publicist, and herself one of the first-class women authors of this day. Franklin Martin Egan began his journalistic career on the staff of the Victoria papers and rose with meteoric rapidity to the heights of his profession. Mrs. Egan is now on her nineteenth voyage across the Pacific, as a special correspondent of The Saturday Evening Post.

Her assignment is to investigate the famine in North China, which she says, has already reached such proportions that 1,500 are dying daily and which, no matter what is done by way of relief must wipe out no fewer than 15,000,000 people in the next few months.

"The famine is beginning to reach the rapidly cumulative stage and I am going direct to Peking just as fast as I can travel in order to bring back a picture of what such a disaster really is," Mrs. Egan said.

China Has Friends
"I am to find out what the famine is, what causes it, why it is being done to relieve the situation, what can be done to prevent future recurrence and what the whole thing means to the friends of China," she said.

"We hear of these famines from time to time, and learn vaguely that they are terrible catastrophes, but to the Anglo-Saxon mind the thought of 15,000,000 souls being snuffed in a few months from such a cause is appalling, and it is my assignment to present a picture of the situation as it actually is."

Sees Great Seaport
"With this passage I shall have crossed the Pacific in every ship done so far. I have or ever did have," she said. "I went first in the old Empress of China, but this will be my first voyage in the Russia. When I came to Vancouver for my first sailing there was nothing but a little wooden hotel and Vancouver was a country village—nothing more. My last visit here in 1917, after more than ten years' absence, was a revelation."

Mrs. Egan began her journalistic career at the age of 19 as an occasional contributor to Leslie's. She soon became a permanent member of the staff of the magazine and has steadily risen to her pre-eminent position among American magazine writers.

It was Mrs. Egan who wrote the story of the death of General Maude in Mesopotamia. She was at the time the only American correspondent with that great expedition.

Says Daniels Is Bluffing
She was much impressed with the electric quality of the leadership of General Maude and said she considered it a great privilege to have been the one who was able to see the dramatic events of that campaign from the perspective of a non-military Occidental.

In a discussion on general topics Mrs. Egan came to mention Anglo-American relations and the proposal for a big navy in the United States. That suggestion emanating from Secretary Daniels she described as pure bluff.

"When the people of the United States refused to accept President Wilson's League of Nations and his Government simply turned like children and tried to frighten them by saying, 'Well, then, you'll have to pay $30 billion for the latest navy in the world.' Now, even if the United States did need a big navy, Joseph Daniels would not be the man to see it, for he is a pacifist, and it is never in his mind to carry such a programme be embarked upon in our country," said Mrs. Egan.

On another point somewhat akin she said: "Many English papers are talking about the so-called American impression that Britain's alliance with Japan is an offensive alliance. There is no such impression in the United States. Our people know better than that."

After visiting Peking, Mrs. Egan will journey to the Philippine Islands where she and her husband lived for five years, when he was with the Associated Press and also for a time editor of The Manila Times.

PACIFIC CHIEF OF U. S. SURVEY POSTED

Captain Richard Derickson
Named For Geodetic
Survey

Seattle, Jan. 14.—Capt. Richard B. Derickson has arrived from Washington, D. C., to succeed J. E. McGrath as chief of the United States coast and geodetic operations on the Pacific coast, including Alaska. McGrath expects to be retired after having seen forty years of service.

Capt. Derickson served as commander of the Geodetic when that vessel was in the coast and geodetic survey. He was in Alaska waters from 1906 to 1913. He then spent two years in the Philippines as commander of the survey boat Pathfinder. During the past four years he has been stationed at Washington, D. C., as chief of the section of field work. He was recently succeeded by Lieut. Commander F. H. Harty, who has served for several years as commander of the U. S. S. Surveyor in Alaska waters.

"The coast and geodetic survey will go ahead with its work in Alaska," said Capt. Derickson yesterday. "Another two seasons should see the fire-drag work along the main steamer routes completed, and then efforts will be turned to the dragging of the side passages."

The wire drag is used to discover pianos which stand up from the bottom of the channels. The water is swept with the drag to a depth of 200 feet.

While in Alaskan waters, Capt. Derickson made detailed surveys of Wrangell and Tongass Narrows and worked with the Canadians in running the international boundary line down Portland Canal and out past Cape Muzon at the south end of Iqaluit Island.

"At that time," said the captain, "we worked wherever the need seemed most imperative. Since then the work has been taken up systematically, beginning at the extreme south and working north."

J. E. McGrath, the retiring chief, is a specialist in geodetic and astronomical work. He put in two years from 1896 to 1901 in the interior of Alaska locating the One Hundred and Forty-First Meridian, which divides Alaska from the Yukon Territory. In the past few years he has worked on the re-marking of the international boundary between Canada and the United States, and on astronomical work in the Southern states. He came to the Seattle office last July.

HEAVY ATLANTIC STORMS RETARDING LARGEST LINERS

Imperator and Other Large
Liners From 12 to 48
Hours Delayed

New York, Jan. 14.—Officers of steamship lines here reported to-day that thirteen passenger vessels and twenty-five freight steamers due in this port to-day and to-morrow from European ports have been delayed from twelve to forty-eight hours because of heavy storms. Among those held up are the Imperator, one of the largest passenger ships afloat, and the La France.

TRANS-PACIFIC LINER TUGS AT CABLES FIREMEN SPORT

Five Australian Firemen Held
Marama For One Hour and Fifteen Minutes

How five Australian firemen, in search of some of the pleasures of life in this port, held up a trans-Pacific passenger liner waiting at the dockside for them to sail, was told to-day by a leading customs official of this port. The Canadian-Australasian liner Marama, which took the sailing of the Niagara yesterday from this port, was posted to clear from the Outer Wharf at twelve noon, and all the passengers were duly on board and waiting to start on their long voyage to the Antipodes.

Ten minutes past twelve came and yet the ship did not move. Twenty minutes past and still no motion though the dock hands were standing by to throw off the remaining cables ashore and free the big passenger liner for her run out.

Five firemen, born in the country "down under" had walked off the Marama, and were then up town indulging in such pastimes as beer and beverages as the opportunity offered. The remaining Australian firemen refused point blank to put to sea without their mates, and so the passengers waited.

Police Come to Aid.
About 12.30 p. m., the master got in touch with the city police and the patrol wagon took a search for the recalcitrant party of firemen. These were easily distinguished as they had been over-successful in their quest of the elusive two and a half per cent, and the five Australians, much wiser in the engine room of the Marama, were rounded up. After further discussion the firemen were royally escorted on board the patrol wagon, and rode in state and merriment to the Outer Wharf.

Under the sudden interruption to their pleasurable engagement, the firemen marched aboard the Marama, and the firemen on duty discovered that all their mates were aboard they consented to permit the ship to get away, and the Marama put to sea, one hour and fifteen minutes late, leaving on her southbound run at 1.15 p. m.

The remarkable coolness of the recalcitrant firemen might be explained by the fact that a strike is now in progress in Australia, in which firemen and stewards of some of the ships have asked for higher wages. The Niagara and the Marama, also of the Canadian-Australasian line are held up by striking men at Sydney. It was learned to-day, and that the company is opposed to making any settlement.

The Sequel.
The firemen will be assessed the cost of the patrol ride, which is to be transmitted by wireless to the ship at sea from the local police station. On leaving their gallant escort the five firemen shook hands cordially with the local bluecoats.

HIGHLANDER READY FOR SEA SHORTLY

Vancouver, Jan. 14.—With 3,500,000 feet of lumber aboard, and in addition considerable general cargo, the freighter Canadian Highlander of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, is practically ready for sea. She is posted to clear on Friday morning.

The Highlander is a product of the Wallace Shipyards and will be steaming away on her maiden voyage, to New York for Vancouver, the sailings are: Steel Ranger, ready to load January 15; steel Exporter, ready to load January 24; Steel Mariner, ready to load February 4; Steel Voyager, ready to load March 15. These steamers will be followed by other vessels of the line at fortnightly intervals.

STEAMERS STRIKE TIES TWO BOATS

Vancouver, Jan. 14.—Advice has been received at the office of the Canadian-Australasian Royal Mail Line that the liner Marama is held indefinitely at Sydney, Australia, on account of the stewards' strike. A dispatch to fight the strikers to a finish and will tie up their steamers indefinitely. The stewards refused to admit the Marama, which ship has a full list of passengers for this port.

The Niagara of the same line is also tied up in port at the same place, and has been for some weeks now. The Marama taking her last sailing southward yesterday.

Wages of common laborers at Springfield, Mass., will be reduced from 67½ to 50 cents an hour.

INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINES ON KENNICOTT

New Type of Craft to Be Watched With Interest

Seattle, Jan. 14.—With the Thorndyke-Trenholme Company, Inc., acting as chartering agents, the Alaska Steamship Company has decided to put the new 6,000-ton steel motorship Kennicott, the only vessel of her type thus far flying the American flag, in to world-wide trade with Puget Sound as her base of operations, and this decision means that for the first time an American craft propelled by internal combustion engines will be tried out in competition with vessels of this type operated by foreign concerns.

The decision to enter the Rennicott in world commerce was made after several conferences between the officials of the Alaska Steamship Company and the Thorndyke-Trenholme concern. It being understood that whenever the Alaskan service demanded it and the Kennicott was on this coast, she would be temporarily used in the North.

Ready in February
The handsome new ship, which is generally styled the most up-to-date motorship afloat, will be ready for service the latter part of February, and her first voyage, according to John H. Bunch, general freight and passenger agent of the Alaska Steamship Company, will be in the nature of a trial voyage to a Pacific Coast port or ports as cargo may offer.

After this her chartering agents are empowered to fix cargo for any world port they may elect, and it is the plan of the Thorndyke-Trenholme Company to prepare for this voyage at once.

The entry of this vessel into world trade is expected to have widespread results, for her owners and their agents feel confident that this vessel will amply demonstrate the efficiency and merit of this type of ship, as well as to satisfy the skeptical that Americans can compete with any other nation in any style of ship.

Interest Aroused
Heretofore the Norwegians, Danes, Swedes and Dutch ship operators have enjoyed pretty much of a monopoly in the operating of this type of vessel, and the entry of the Kennicott into competition with vessels owned by operators of these countries will be watched with keen interest.

Herman W. Ross, vice-president and general manager of the Thorndyke-Trenholme Company, yesterday, commenting on the selection of the Kennicott for the purpose, declared that in operating this vessel the shipping board schedule of freight rates would be adhered to at all times.

There being no desire on the part of her owners to engage in any rate war. Both Ross and Bunch made it plain that it was the joint purpose of the two companies to demonstrate the practicability of the motorship built by Americans and operated by local concerns.

American motorships of wood construction have been operating with some loss success for some time, but their size, much smaller than the Kennicott, has been a handicap. In the case of the Kennicott, she is a 6,000 tons deadweight capacity ship, equipped with all the most modern freight handling devices, and therefore amply commodious as to capacity to favorably compete with motorships of other countries.

MARINE NOTES

The West Jappa reached Quarantine overnight and passed up for Vancouver direct at 9 a. m. this morning.

The Harrison Direct Line freighter Chancelor was reported in wireless at 8 p. m. last night as 400 miles off Estevan, which will bring her alongside here Saturday afternoon. She will make Vancouver after unloading a light cargo here.

The whaling tender Gray, of the Consolidated Whaling fleet, is alongside the United Kingdom, with cargo on the second Government steel freighter, Canadian Traveler, is being pushed to completion, and she should be ready for trials in four weeks time, it was stated to-day.

The West Ivis, Captain Nygran, under discharge at Vancouver, will pass on her way to-day. She is a U. S. Shipping Board vessel of Struthers and Dixon.

The West Cayote, which touched here on her way up to Vancouver from the United Kingdom, with cargo for the Harrison line from Glasgow, London and Hull, will move from Vancouver to Sound ports to-day.

The Fushimi Maru is at Sound ports and will shift to Vancouver to load outward about January 25, it is stated.

The Harrison Direct Line vessel Chancelor, from U. K. to this coast, is due to make Vancouver on Monday. She is to load 1,000 tons of salmon and flour at the mainland port for the return trip.

The tanker Atlas was successfully hauled out yesterday on the marine railway at Messrs. Yarrows, Ltd., Esquimalt, and this morning was all ready for the commencement of work. She is extensively damaged about the bottom forward, and will require numerous new plates and some frame work rivetting. The work will take a period of at least three weeks, it was stated to-day.

The Atlas rammed herself on rocks up in Snow Pass and has had an exciting time getting down to this port.

When the Fushimi Maru docked here on her way up from the Orient the other day the passengers told of the master art of the chef. She carried an immense sugared model of the Woolworth Building, New York, on her dining table, made of Christmas cake.

The Fushimi Maru, now loading in Sound ports, will pass out on January 27, while the Toyohashi, of the same line, will clear on January 22.

Norman A. Yarrow, head of the ship repair plant at Esquimalt, returned from Seattle to-day, after winning the contract on repairs to the tanker Atlas in open competition with American firms. Mr. Yarrow was delighted at the success of his firm over their competitors on the other side, and points to the fact that the Atlas left the American yards, where it had been hauled out for survey, for this island, a fact that has not escaped the notice of the shipping repair plants along the coast.

FEARS ROCKET WOULD MISS MOON

London Expert Says Frictional Heat Would Destroy Projectile

Writing in the Graphic (London) of the project of reaching the moon by rocket, recently put forth by Prof. Robert H. Goddard of Clark College, Worcester, Mass., George F. Morrell points out the following difficulties: "To have any chance of success the rocket needs to travel at something over six miles a second—that is, about twelve times as fast as a bullet leaves a rifle. Now, the possibility of this speed being attained is not the crux of the problem, which is to be found in the fact that when it is reached the rocket will vanish in an incandescent wisp of flame and smoke; for it is well known that bodies when they speed through the air are subject to friction, and if they travel at even two miles a second the friction against the air is sufficient to generate a tremendous heat, while at a greater rate a consuming white heat is soon reached, even if the body be of steel."

Then, again, it is almost mathematically impossible to aim certainly from an object moving, as the earth does, about nineteen miles a second in one direction and nearly 2,000 feet a second in another, and each direction varying with every microscopic fraction of a second of time, at a target 240,000 miles away, also moving at another speed, especially when the actual speed of the rocket throughout the journey cannot be known.

Besides, the gravitational pull of the earth is complex and is varied by tidal pull of the moon and there are unknown air currents and many other

VARIETY

"Kismet," with the inimitable Otis

Skinner, a Robertson-Cole release,

now showing at the Variety Theatre, is the greatest photo-play of a decade. As the masterpiece of Edward

Knoblock, the film version of this famous drama has lost none of the essential "pen" needed to make it the great success on the screen that it was on the legitimate stage. While

Louis J. Gasnier has long been identified with the best in film achievement, as director of "Kismet" he won the greatest victory of his career.

There is no question as to the complete success of this picture. In the first place, the combination of Otis

Skinner and "Kismet" assures the movie fan of something worth while.

Here is a real story, written by an American dramatist, in which the greatest of American character actors appears. Mr. Skinner knows his "Kis-met" as few actors know their picture. Those who saw the picture last night were privileged to see Mr.

Skinner in his first venture on the screen. An artist of the semi-old school, Mr. Skinner literally had to be dragged into the realm of the film.

His appearance on the silver sheet should be heralded with great joy by the lovers of moving pictures, and it is to be hoped that he has overcome his antipathy to camera acting and will again be seen on the screen in the picture, plays his old role, that of the Mansur, Rosemary Theby as Marsinah, give excellent performances. It should be noted that while

Mr. Skinner occupies the centre of the screen for the greater part of the time, his clever acting does not subordinate the other members of a perfect cast.

"My Irish Rose" continues the ballad of this week and the usual Saturday matinee. The little folks will love "My Irish Rose."

ROYAL VICTORIA

"How do you like playing with Annette Kellerman?" Wheeler Oakman, who played opposite the queen of the sea in her new Sol Lesser picture, was asked recently.

"Oh, we get along swimmingly," he replied, thinking of the maritime sequences he had gone through with the star.

"What Women Love," Miss Kellerman's modern comedy drama will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-night.

DOMINION

The showing of "Conrad in Quest of His Youth" at the Dominion Theatre this week presents Thomas Meighan, the popular actor who enthused film fans by his memorable work in "The Miracle Man," fascinated them as the butler in "Male and Female," and made them love him as the young artist in "The Prince Chap."

In this new William DeMille production, he portrays the role of Conrad Warren, who, having passed middle age realizes that he is old, and seeks, by re-living the scenes of his youth, to make himself young again. He finds, ultimately, that the secret of youth is love and the picture finishes with a delightful romance.

The production is a winner, not only in theme and plot, but by virtue of the excellent work of the talented cast of favorites, which includes Mabel Van Buren, Maym Kelso, Bertram Johns, Sylvia Ashton, Kathryn Williams, Margaret Loomis, Charles Ogilvie, Ruth Renick and others.

The novel, upon which the picture is founded, is one of Leonard Merrick's most popular stories. Oles Printzian preserved all the beauty and delicacy of the original story in her adaptation.

PANTAGES

A British Columbia girl is one of the feature attractions of this week's Pantages show. Miss Maud Earl, now one of the favorite prima donnas in vaudeville, commenced her career as a theatrical artist in a little theatre on Cordova Street, Vancouver. She is appearing in a musical novelty entitled "The Vocal Verdict," for which she renders a group of songs, some of them selected from grand opera. Wonderful stage settings, beautiful costumes and marvellous lighting effects, all enhanced by youthful and childish grace, make the stage a veritable fairyland during the presentation of "Artists in Miniature," the headline offering presented by the Douglas Dancers. Another big number on this week's bill is "Salvation Molly," a melodrama of San Francisco's Chinatown, with Miss Annette Kellerman in the leading role. "The Pals," a quartette of young men with pleasing voices. "The Three Bartos," super-gymnasts with an amazing repertoire of tricks, and Waco, Bligh and McCarty, jazz artists, complete the programme.

COLUMBIA

There will be a special children's matinee on Saturday afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock. The management of the Columbia Theatre will present to the children under 14 years of age a bag of candy. A special children's programme has been arranged, including a Government educational film showing the various aspects of the earth and for the first time, also the buffalo and the bear. The small cub bear will more than delight the children. Parents should not miss this opportunity of letting the children see this wonderful programme, and also receive the free bag of choice candies. During the past few years the theatre-going public has been presented with photo-dramas taken on earth, sea and in the sky, and some have even gone under the sea for a few scenes. But Harry Carey goes them all one better in his new picture, "Blue Streak McCoy," which is at the Columbia Theatre.

Reeves Eason, who directed Carey in "Blue Streak McCoy," is responsible for the idea of taking the actors a few thousand feet below the surface of the earth and for the first time in the history of motion pictures filmed scenes in an operating mine.

COLUMBIA'S COMING FEATURE.

It takes a great degree of cleverness to take a motion picture, minus scenario, with savages as the principal players, so that when the picture is finished it is a six-real picture that holds one gripping the arms of the chair at every turn of the crank. Thirteen months ago Edward Laemmle and William Alder, two Universal cameramen, were shipwrecked on the cannibal coast of New Guinea. Being true motion picture men, they rescued their camera, even when their lives were threatened. Saved from drowning, they faced a worse death at the hands of the man-eating cannibals who inhabited this country.

Nothing daunted, they plunged into the jungle, and through a series of nerve obtained the most marvelous pictures ever taken. Truth is indeed more strange than fiction. No one would think that the savages could be trained to act. They couldn't. They didn't act one inch of film. In a perfectly natural manner, however, they performed their head-dances and other rites. While one cameraman held the savages at bay, another took a picture of the Kai-Kai warriors as they tore down upon them, spears aimed for instant death.

These are only a few of the scenes taken by Mr. Laemmle and his cameramen before they made their escape on board a Chinese trading vessel that came in answer to their signals for help. The remarkable scenes they filmed will be shown at the Columbia Theatre next Monday, when "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals" is scheduled for presentation.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of every one, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heart-sick, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath; the nasty irritating, bleeding itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper function, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S., writes: "I was troubled with sick headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
